

Contents

List of Figures	vii
DEBORAH ASCHER BARNSTONE AND THOMAS O. HAAKENSON
Introduction: Why Visual Culture Matters	1
GABRIELLA SZALAY
A Painting Fit for a Nation: The Dombild and its Legacy in Nineteenth-Century Germany	9
SAMUEL ADAMS
Blasting Wagner out of the Continuum of History: Deutschtum Transposed in the Los Angeles Ring	33
ROBERT C. KUNATH
German Art and the Spirit of 1914: Identity, Modernism, and the Case of Ludwig Dettmann	57
THOMAS O. HAAKENSON
The Architectonics of Public Science: German Identity and the Berlin Museum of Pathology	79
KEVIN S. AMIDON
Intersexes and Mixed Races: Visuality, Narrative, and “Bastard” Identity in Early Twentieth-Century Germany	103

DEBORAH ASCHER BARNSTONE

- The 1929 Breslau Werkbund Exhibition:
Constructing German Identity in Architecture and Urban Design 129

ELIZABETH CRONIN

- The Problem of German Identity in 1930s Austria and the Influence of Austrian Heimat Photography 153

WENDY WESTPHAL

- Good Bye, DDR!:*
Where East German Material Culture Meets Film 177

MAREIKE HERRMANN

- Imagined Homes:
Negotiating German Identity in the Eastern Provinces in
Thomas Arslan's Ferien and Dominik Graf's
Komm mir nicht nach 199

ERIN HANAS

- Raus mit der Sprache. Rein ins Leben:* The Exposed Tongue 225

CHRISTINA SCHMID

- Pathetic Parodies:
German National Identity in Bjørn Melhus' Weit Weit Weg 251

- Notes on Contributors 275

- Index 279