

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	9
An Introduction to Cultural Policy in the Polder Edwin van Meerkerk and Quirijn Lennert van den Hoogen	11
A Well-Balanced Cultural Policy An Interview with Minister of Culture Ingrid van Engelshoven Marielle Hendriks	37
1. Legal Aspects of Cultural Policy Inge van der Vlies	41
2. An International Perspective on Dutch Cultural Policy Toine Minnaert	67
‘A Subsidy to Make a Significant Step Upwards’ An Interview with Arjo Klingens André Nuchelmans	85
3. The Framing Game Towards Deprovincialising Dutch Cultural Policy Johan Kolsteeg	89
4. Values in Cultural Policymaking Political Values and Policy Advice Quirijn Lennert van den Hoogen and Florine Jonker	107
An Exercise in Undogmatic Thinking An Interview with Gable Roelofsen Bjorn Schrijen	131
5. Towards a Cultural Policy of Trust The Dutch Approach from the Perspective of a Transnational Civil Domain Thijs Lijster, Hanka Otte and Pascal Gielen	133

6. Dutch Media Policy	151
Towards the End of Reflective Diversity?
Erik Hitters
‘A More Holistic Approach to Problems’	165
An Interview with Hans Poll and Jacqueline Roelofs
Jack van der Leden
7. Cultural Education Policy	169
Its Justification and Organisation
Teunis Ijdens and Edwin van Meerkerk
8. Culture for Everyone	195
The Value and Feasibility of Stimulating Cultural Participation
Koen van Eijck
‘A Strong Field Needs Variation and Experimentation’	215
An Interview with Saskia Bak
Rogier Brom
9. The People’s Palaces	219
Public Libraries in the Information Society
Frank Huysmans and Marjolein Oomes
10. Cultural Policy at a Crossroads?	243
How the Matthew Effect, New Sociocultural Oppositions and Digitalisation Challenge Dutch National Cultural Policy
Erik Schrijvers
‘Production is Preceded by Talent Development’	265
An Interview with Sandra den Hamer
Kimberly van Aart
Epilogue: A Systemic View of Dutch Cultural Policy in the Next 25 Years	269
Quirijn Lennert van den Hoogen and Edwin van Meerkerk’
Overview of Dutch Ministers of / Secretaries for Culture and their most important cultural policy documents	287

Appendix	291
Facts and Figures on Culture and Cultural Policy in the Netherlands
Kimberly van Aart, Rogier Brom, Bjorn Schrijen
Authors' Biographies	315
Index	319