

CONTENTS

PREFACE	xi
----------------	-----------

Part I. The Mission

CHAPTER

1. The Problem and Its Setting	3
2. The Scope, Significance, and Method of the Inquiry	12

Part II. A Framework for Evaluating Public Policy-making

CHAPTER

3. The Evaluation of Public Policymaking	25
4. Net Output as the Primary Criterion for Ascertaining the Quality of Public Policy-making	33
5. Secondary Criteria for Ascertaining the Quality of Public Policymaking	50
6. Main Standards for Appraising Policy-making	58

Part III. A Diagnostic Evaluation of Contemporary Public Policymaking

CHAPTER

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 7. The Empiric Study of Public Policy-making | 73 |
| 8. Decisionmaking by Subunits | 78 |
| 9. Public Policymaking in Modern States | 85 |
| 10. Public Policymaking in Developing States | 105 |
| 11. An Evaluation and Diagnosis of the Present State of Public Policymaking | 120 |

Part IV. An Optimal Model of Public Policymaking

CHAPTER

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 12. A Critical Survey of Normative Models of Public Policymaking | 129 |
| 13. The Major Characteristics of the Optimal Model | 154 |
| 14. The Phases of the Optimal Model | 163 |
| 15. The Structure of Optimal Public Policy-making | 197 |

Part V. On Improving Public Policymaking

CHAPTER

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 16. The Major Improvements Needed in Public Policymaking | 217 |
| 17. Changes Needed in Knowledge | 220 |
| 18. Changes Needed in Personnel | 246 |
| 19. Changes Needed in Structure and Process Patterns | 260 |

20. Changes Needed in Input and Stipulated Output	282
21. Changes Needed in the Environment	287

Part VI. The Choice: Shaping the Future or Muddling Through

CHAPTER

22. The Significance of Society's Major Alternatives	299
--	-----

Appendixes

A • Tables	306
B • A Summary of the Phases of Optimal Public Policymaking	311
C • Policy Knowledge and the Disciplines of Knowledge	319
D • Bibliographic Essay	327

Index	357
--------------	------------