

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	viii
I SOCIAL RULE SYSTEM THEORY
1 Actors, social action and systems	1
2 Social rule system theory	8
3 The organization of social action and social forms	33
4 Actors, rules and social structure	52
5 Rule systems, social power and the organization of modern society	69
6 Consensus and conflict in social life	89
7 Grammars of social institutions and the structuring of spheres of social action	99
II MARKETS AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING SYSTEMS
8 The structuring of markets and other distributive systems	123
9 Market organization and performance properties: The rise and decline of the Swedish Model	152
10 Collective bargaining regimes and their transformation	176
III BUREAUCRACY AND FORMAL ORGANIZATIONS
11 Multiple rule systems: Formal and informal social organization	213
12 Local public administration as an arena of conflicting rule systems	241

13	Hydro-power administration in a changing world: Industrial growth, environmentalism and centre–periphery struggle in Norway	258
IV	EXPERTISE, TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIAL ORGANIZATION
14	Technology and technique, social action and rule systems	292
15	A modern oracle and politics: Studies in energy forecasting	322
16	Science and practical action: Studies in competing logics	348
17	Conclusion: Principles of social organization and the structuration of modern Western societies	366
	Notes	389
	References	416
	Index	425
	About the authors and contributors	433