

CONTENTS

1	Introduction Dina Gusejnova	1
Part I Conflicts as Cosmopolitan Moments
2	Transnational and Cosmopolitan Aspects of Eighteenth-Century European Wars Stephen Conway	29
3	Kant's Subaltern Period: The Birth of Cosmopolitanism from the Spirit of Occupation Alexander Etkind	55
4	After the Napoleonic Wars: Reading Perpetual Peace in the Russian Empire Maria Mayofis	85
Part II Between Empires
5	Modern Muslim Cosmopolitanism Between the Logics of Race and Empire Cemil Aydin	113

ix

6	Cosmopolitanism and Internationalism in Modern British Political Thought: Continuities and Discontinuities Georgios Varouxakis	147
7	The BBC's Corporate Cosmopolitanism: The Diasporic Voice Between Empire and Cold War Marie Gillespie and Eva Nieto McAvoy	179
Part III Cosmopolitanisms in the City
8	Brest-Litovsk as a Site of Historical Disorientation Dina Gusejnova	213
9	The Languages of Caucasian Cosmopolitanism: Twentieth-Century Baku at the Crossroads Zaur Gasimov	247
10	From Kantian Cosmopolitanism to Stalinist Kosmopolitizm: The Making of Kaliningrad Olga Sezneva	271
11	Transnational Emotions in Times of Conflict: An Afterword Axel Körner	295
	Index	303