

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Note on Venetian Dates	xii
Introduction	xiii

PART I The Recording Institution

1 The Tasks of the Inquisition in Venice	3
2 Heresy, the State and the Inquisition	15
3 Venetian and Roman Elements in the Inquisition	26
4 Venetian, Roman and Other Inquisitions	45
5 Jurisdiction, Crime and Punishment: the Heresy of the Baptized	58
6 Jurisdiction, Crime and Punishment: Attacks upon Christianity	72
7 Denunciation and Defence	92
8 The Testimony of the Inquisition	117

PART II Toleration and the Inquisition: the Place of the Jews in Venetian Society

9 Nations Set Apart: Christian and Jew in Venice	145
10 The Senate and the Sephardim	168

PART III The Marranos of Iberia and the Converts of Italy

11 The Problem of Marranism	201
12 The Marrano as Catholic and as Jew	211
13 The Marrano Family	229
14 Neophytes of Italy: the Conquest of Souls	243
15 Neophytes of Italy: Conversion and Reclamation	275
16 Neophytes of Italy: Casualties of Conversion	294

Conclusion	313
Appendix I Fiscal obligations of the Jews in the mid-seventeenth century	317
Appendix II Jewish settlement in Venice in the seventeenth century	319
Manuscript Sources	320
Bibliography	321
Index	333