

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

Kitty Millet

PART ONE The transcendental and transcendence

1 Rewriting grand narratives as a supratemporal mystical competition: Illustrations from Dante, Rabelais, Cervantes, Goethe, Proust, Mann, and Joyce 33

Gerald Gillespie

2 “Clearer awareness of the ... crisis”: Erich Auerbach’s radical relativism and the “wealth of conflicts” of the historical imperative 45

Geoffrey Green

3 Secularism and post-secularism 63

Wlad Godzich

PART TWO Literature

4 Redemptive readings between Maurice Blanchot and Franz Rosenzweig 79

Shawna Vesco

5 “So what if you are big?”: The ethics of plurality in Indian literatures of devotion 95

Ipshita Chanda

- 6 Alterity and the ethics of the novel in J. M. Coetzee's quasi-realism 121
Christopher Weinberger

PART THREE Religion

- 7 Asmodeus, the “eye of providence,” and the ethics of seeing in nineteenth-century mystery fiction 149
Sara Hackenberg
- 8 Modernism's religious rhetorics: Or, what bothered Baudelaire 163
Hope Howell Hodgkins
- 9 Poetry and religion: Approaches to Christian transcendence in late-twentieth-century poets 183
Stephanie Heimgartner

PART FOUR Ethics

- 10 Instituting the other: Ethical fault lines in readings and pedagogies of alterity 199
Dorothy Figueira
- 11 Thinking God on the basis of ethics: Levinas, The Brothers Karamazov, and Dostoevsky's anti-Semitism 217
Steven Shankman
- 12 An ethics for missing persons 227
Kitty Millet