

Contents

List of Abbreviations	viii
Introduction: Benjamin, Adorno, and the Experience of Literature	1
COREY McCALL AND NATHAN ROSS
PART I
Benjamin and Adorno: Literary Themes and Philosophical Debates	17
1 Against the Reification of History: Benjamin and Adorno on Baudelaire	19
COREY McCALL
2 Theatrum Philosophicum: Thinking Literature and Politics With Walter Benjamin	37
OSCAR GUARDIOLA-RIVERA
3 Adorno and Beckett: Aesthetic Mimēsis and the Language of “The New”	57
MARCIA MORGAN
4 Abysmal Humanity: Anthropological Materialism in Georg Büchner and Walter Benjamin	76
CAT MOIR

PART II
Kafka: “Fairy Tales for Dialecticians”		91
5 Breaking Through the Mythic Organization of Life: On the Critique of Capitalism in Benjamin and Kafka		93
NATHAN ROSS
6 The Virtue or Power of the Useless: Benjamin and Adorno on Kafka		111
IDIT DOBBS-WEINSTEIN
7 Discovering the Truth of Sancho Panza: The Meaning of Comedy in Adorno’s and Benjamin’s Divergent Readings of Don Quixote		126
MENACHEM FEUER
PART III
Proust: Recovering Experience		141
8 Adorno and Proust: Memory, Childhood, and the Experiential Grounds of Social Criticism		143
ROGER FOSTER
9 Seeing In, Seeing Through: Adorno and Proust		159
OWEN HULATT
PART IV
From Hölderlin to Walser: Poetic Afterlives		179
10 Hölderlin’s Aesthetic Critique of Modernity		181
MICHAEL J. THOMPSON
11 Walter Benjamin on Hölderlin’s “Poetic Cosmos”		201
HYUN HÖCHSMANN
12 Wo bist du, Nachdenkliches! Sobriety and Poetic Determinability in Hölderlin and Walser		221
STÉPHANE SYMONS

13 Ramble On: Robert Walser at the Limits of Critical Theory 235

JEFFREY A. BERNSTEIN

List of Contributors 252

Index 255