

Contents

Preface	vii
List of Tables	xii
1. POLITICAL ORDER AND POLITICAL DECAY	1
The Political Gap	1
Political Institutions: Community and Political Order	8
Social Forces and Political Institutions	8
Criteria of Political Institutionalization	12
Political Institutions and Public Interests	24
Political Participation: Modernization and Political Decay	32
Modernization and Political Consciousness	32
Modernization and Violence	39
Modernization and Corruption	59
The City-Country Gap: Urban Breakthrough and Green Uprising	72
Political Stability: Civic and Praetorian Polities	78
2. POLITICAL MODERNIZATION: AMERICA VS. EUROPE	93
Three Patterns of Modernization	93
Rationalization of Authority	98
Differentiation of Structure	109
Tudor Institutions and Mass Participation	122
Tudor Polity and Modernizing Societies	134
3. POLITICAL CHANGE IN TRADITIONAL POLITIES	140
Power, Institutions, and Political Modernization	140
Traditional Political Systems	148
Policy Innovation: Reform vs. Liberty	153
Group Assimilation: Pluralism vs. Equality	166
The King's Dilemma: Success vs. Survival	177
Transformation	177
Coexistence	180
Maintenance	185

4. PRAETORIANISM AND POLITICAL DECAY	192
The Sources of Praetorianism	192
Oligarchical to Radical Praetorianism: Breakthrough Coups and the Soldier as Reformer	198
Radical Praetorianism: Social Forces and Political Techniques	208
Radical to Mass Praetorianism: Veto Coups and the Soldier as Guardian	219
Praetorianism to Civic Order: The Soldier as Institution- Builder	237
5. REVOLUTION AND POLITICAL ORDER	264
Modernization by Revolution	264
Institutional and Social Circumstances of Revolution	274
The City and Revolution	278
Lumpenproletariat	278
Industrial Labor	283
Middle-Class Intelligentsia	288
Peasants and Revolution	291
The Revolutionary Alliance and Nationalism	300
Political Development by Revolution	308
Community and Party	308
Mexico	315
Bolivia	325
Leninism and Political Development	334
6. REFORM AND POLITICAL CHANGE	344
Strategy and Tactics of Reform: Fabianism, Blitzkrieg, and Violence	344
Reform: Substitute or Catalyst?	362
The Urban Intelligentsia: Reform as a Catalyst	369
The Peasantry: Reform as a Substitute	374
The Politics of Land Reform	380
7. PARTIES AND POLITICAL STABILITY	397
Modernization and Parties	397
Political Community in Modern Society	397
The Fragility of the No-Party State	403
Strong Parties and Political Stability	408
Processes of Party Development	412
Adaptability of Party Systems	420

Contents	xi
The Green Uprising: Party Systems and Rural Mobilization	433
Parties and the Rural-Urban Gap	433
Rural Mobilization through Nationalist Struggle	438
Rural Mobilization through Party Competition: The Conservatism of Democracy	443
Two-Party Competition and Ruralizing Elections	448
The Organizational Imperative	460
Index	463