

Contents

Preface ix

Abbreviations x

Notes on Contributors xi

- 1 Introduction: Pain and Pleasure as a Field of Historical Study 1
W. V. Harris
- 2 Post-primordial Pleasures: The Pleasures of the Flesh and the Question of Origins 15
James Davidson
- 3 Must We Suffer in Order to Stay Healthy? Pleasure and Pain in Ancient Medical Literature 36
Véronique Boudon-Millot
- 4 Pain and Medicine in the Classical World 55
W. V. Harris
- 5 Pleasure and the Medicus in Roman Literature 83
Caroline Wazer
- 6 What is Hedonism? 93
Katja Maria Vogt
- 7 Pleasure, Pain, and the Unity of the Soul in Plato's Protagoras 111
Wolfgang-Rainer Mann and Vanessa de Harven
- 8 Lucretian Pleasure 139
Elizabeth Asmis
- 9 Joy, Flow, and the Sage's Experience in Seneca 156
Sam McVane
- 10 Alexander of Aphrodisias on Pleasure and Pain in Aristotle 174
Wei Cheng

- 11 On Grief and Pain 201
David Konstan
- 12 Nero in Hell: Plutarch's De Sera Numinis Vindicta 213
Marcus Folch
- Bibliography 241
- Index 260