

Contents

PREFACE

Robert E. Lerner: A Portrait

Richard Kieckhefer

vii

List of Contributors

xiv

INTRODUCTION

Historiography, Methodology, and Manuscripts: Robert E. Lerner and the Study of Late Medieval Heresy

Michael D. Bailey and Sean L. Field

1

- 1 The Heresy of the Templars and the Dream of a French Inquisition
Sean L. Field 14
- 2 The Dissemination of Barthélemy Sicard's Postilla super Danielem
Sylvain Piron 35
- 3 Magic, Mysticism, and Heresy in the Early Fourteenth Century
Michael D. Bailey 56
- 4 The Making of a Heretic: Pope John XXII's Campaign against
Louis of Bavaria
Georg Modestin 76
- 5 Unusual Choices: The Unique Heresy of Limoux Negre
Louisa A. Burnham 96
- 6 Princely Poverty: Louis of Durazzo, Dynastic Politics, and Heresy
in Fourteenth-Century Naples
Elizabeth Casteen 116
- 7 Disentangling Heretics, Jews, and Muslims: Imagining Infidels in Late Medieval Pastoral Manuals
Deeana Copeland Klepper 137
- 8 New Frontiers in the Late Medieval Reception of a Heretical Text:
The Implications of Two New Latin Copies of Marguerite Porete's
Mirror of Simple Souls
Justine L. Trombley 157

Contents

9	Disputing Prophetic Thought: The 1466 Questio quodlibetalis of Johannes of Dorsten Frances Kneupper	178
10	Heretics, Allies, Exemplary Christians: Latin Views of Ethiopian Orthodox in the Late Middle Ages Samantha Kelly	195
11	'By them in reality I meant the Jews': Medieval Heretics in the Work and Life of Renate Riemeck (1920–2003) Jörg Feuchter	215
	AFTERWORD
	Who or What Was a Heretic in the Late Middle Ages? Barbara Newman	238
	Robert E. Lerner: A Chronological Bibliography	250
	Index	259