

Contents

Chapter I – Introduction	17
1. A Common Theme: Rethinking Islam through Rereading the Quran.....	17
2. Challenges to Religious Thought.....	21
3. Specific Challenges to Islamic Thought.....	22
4. Research Question	28
5. Choice of Thinkers.....	29
Chapter II – Quran	33
Rahman	33
1. The Uncorrupted Quranic Essence	33
2. Guide towards Moral Perfection	34
3. As complex as Life.....	36
4. Ratio Legis and taqwā	38
Arkoun	39
1. A Product of Selection and Distortion.....	40
2. Deliverer of ḥaq and Being-in-the-World	42
3. Multi-Level-Transition.....	44
4. From Orality to Written Authority	46
Abu Zayd	48
1. A Human and Literary Text	49
2. Creative Communication	50
3. Humanity and Historicity.....	52
4. Original Speech and mushaf	55
5. kalām and dalāla	57
6. Access through Language and Reason.....	60
Comparison.....	60
Chapter III – Prophecy and Revelation	63
Rahman	63
1. Divine Source & Muhammad’s Mind.....	63
2. Emanation.....	65
3. Muhammad’s Inner Struggle.....	71

Arkoun	75
1. Revelation – An Anthropological Approach.....	75
2. Quranic and Prophetic Discourse	79
Abu Zayd.....	82
1. Divine Source & Human Word.....	82
2. waḥy and shifra	82
3. Muhammad’s Legacy	91
Comparison.....	92
Chapter IV – Reform.....	95
Rahman	95
1. Education and Islamic Metaphysics	96
2. Islamic State and Popular Sovereignty	99
3. shari‘a Law – System of ijtihād , shūrā , ijmā‘	103
Arkoun	106
1. Source of Inspiration: adab	107
2. Ethos, Islamic Studies and Philosophy.....	109
3. Mediterranean Realm and Project of Enlightenment.....	111
4. Society beyond Education.....	113
Abu Zayd	120
1. Reconsidering ‘ aql ’	120
2. Reforming Islamic Thought.....	124
3. Rethinking Education	128
4. Secular Democracy, Pluralism, and Tolerance	130
Comparison.....	133
Chapter V – Exegesis and Hermeneutics.....	135
Rahman	135
1. Methods and Terminology.....	135
1.1 Categorizing Verses.....	135
1.2 Rethinking Traditional Methods	136
1.3 Double Movement	140

2. Exegesis and Hermeneutics.....	140
2.1 Determinism	140
2.2 Equality	142
Arkoun	144
1. Methods and Terminology.....	144
1.1 Analysing the Semiological Environment	145
2. Exegesis and Hermeneutics.....	147
2.1 islām/imān	147
2.2 Violence/ jihad	149
2.3 Emergence of the Responsible Person	153
Abu Zayd	156
1. Methods and Terminology.....	156
1.1 The Rational Approach.....	159
1.2 Categorizing Quranic Verses.....	159
1.3 Determine Meaning and Significance.....	160
1.4 Practice of ta'wīl and Reassessment of turāth	161
1.5 Reading in the Spirit (maqṣad) and Two Dimensions of the Quran.....	163
2. Gadamer and Abu Zayd	164
3. Exegesis and Hermeneutics.....	166
3.1 Justice	167
3.2 Doing Justice in Accordance with fiṭra	169
3.3 Gender Equality in Fundamental Verses	170
Comparison.....	175
Chapter VI – Conclusion	179
Different Expectations towards the Quran.....	180
Quranic Text in Human Realm.....	181
Umma and ' Ulama '	183
Last Remarks.....	184
Bibliography	187