

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| INTRODUCTION | vii |
| I. THE EMERGENCE OF AN ADOLESCENT SUBCULTURE IN INDUSTRIAL SOCIETY | 1 |
| II. THE ADOLESCENT CULTURE | 11 |
| The general interests and activities of teen-agers | |
| Cars in the adolescent culture | |
| Values and attitudes in the adolescent community | |
| The leading crowds in the schools | |
| What does it take to be popular? | |
| Boy-girl relations and their impact on the culture | |
| EFFECTS ON GIRLS OF THE EMPHASIS ON ATTRACTIVENESS | |
| III. VALUE CLIMATES OF EACH SCHOOL | 58 |
| The ten schools | |
| The importance of good grades | |
| The puzzle of Executive Heights and the two added schools | |
| Classification of schools according to academic orientation of the adolescent culture | |
| Grades of the leading crowd | |
| Ascriptive criteria in the adolescent status systems | |
| Academic orientation and status ascription | |
| Summary of scholastic achievement and family background | |
| Athletics in the status system | |
| Popularity with boys in the status system of girls | |
| Conclusion | |
| IV. WHO ARE THE POPULAR HEROES AND LEADERS? | 97 |
| The distribution of the elites | |
| Backgrounds of the elites | |
| BACKGROUND OF "LOCAL LEADERS" AND "SYSTEM LEADERS" | |
| THE COMPOSITION OF ELITES, FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE SYSTEM AND FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE INDIVIDUAL | |
| OTHER BACKGROUND CHARACTERISTICS | |
| Post-high school intentions | |
| The norms and values of the elite groups | |

OTHER NORMS OF THE ELITE GROUPS

Cars among the elites
Athletics among the elites
Activities among the girl elites
To whom are they oriented?

V. SPORTS AND STUDIES AS PATHS TO SUCCESS 143

Introduction

THE EXEMPLARS: PERSONS TO BE LIKE AND BE FRIENDS WITH THE LEADING CROWD

THE LOCAL LEADERS, FREQUENTLY NAMED AS FRIENDS

Social rewards for athletes and scholars

ATHLETES, SCHOLARS, AND ATHLETE-SCHOLARS

ATHLETE, SCHOLAR, AND LADIES' MAN

Athletes, scholars, and ladies' men in each school

SOCIAL REWARDS IN THE FIVE SMALL SCHOOLS

STRUCTURAL VARIATIONS IN THE SMALL SCHOOLS

SOCIAL REWARDS IN THE FIVE LARGE SCHOOLS

STRUCTURAL VARIATIONS IN THE LARGE SCHOOLS

Sources of the structural difference

VI. BEAUTY AND BRAINS AS PATHS TO SUCCESS 164

Beauty and brains in the small schools

Beauty and brains in the large schools

Changes over the four years

The coincidence of beauty and brains

VII. STRUCTURES OF ASSOCIATION AND THEIR RELATION TO THE VALUE-SYSTEMS 173*Structural differences at a glanceThe association structures of small school boys*

BOYS IN MARKETVILLE: SIMPLE IN STRUCTURE,
 VARIABLE IN CONTENT

BOYS IN ELMTOWN: COMPLEX IN STRUCTURE,
 STABLE IN CONTENT

BOYS IN MAPLE GROVE: SIMPLE IN STRUCTURE,
 STABLE IN CONTENT

BOYS IN GREEN JUNCTION: VARIABLE IN STRUCTURE, SIMPLE IN CONTENT

Non-scholastic orientation, and the emergence of a second leading crowd

ATHLETICS AS THE "ORGANIZER" OF FRESHMAN

LEADING CLIQUES

MINORITY INTEREST AND CLIQUES CROSS-CUTTING GRADES

THE FOUR SCHOOLS: RELATION OF CLIMATE TO STRUCTURE

The association structures of small-school girls

GIRLS IN MARKETVILLE: SIMPLE DOMINANCE,

INTERLOCKING ELITES

GIRLS IN ELMTOWN: FLUID, COMPLEX STRUCTURE

THE CROSS-CLASS GROUPS AND DEVIANT MINORITIES

GIRLS IN MAPLE GROVE: SIMPLE MIDDLE CLASS DOMINANCE,

SOCIAL IN ORIENTATION

GIRLS IN GREEN JUNCTION: A "DEMOCRATIC" STRUCTURE

SUMMARY OF GIRLS' STRUCTURES IN THE FOUR SCHOOLS

Patterns of dominance, and control by the community

Patterns of dominance; status upsets as a stable pattern

Boys' systems and the interruption by athletics

VIII. PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS OF THE SOCIAL SYSTEM

221

Effects upon self-evaluation

THE EFFECT OF HAVING FRIENDS

THE ELITES AND THEIR SELF-EVALUATIONS

THE OUTSIDERS AND THEIR SELF-EVALUATIONS

THE OUTSIDERS WITHOUT FRIENDS

REACTIONS TO NEGATIVE FEELINGS ABOUT SELF

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE SYSTEM

REJECTION OF THE SYSTEM

Self-evaluations of those who achieve

SELF-EVALUATIONS OF THOSE WHO ACHIEVE IN VARIOUS

STATUS SYSTEMS

Effects on the uses of leisure time: The role of mass media

EFFECTS OF SYSTEMS WHICH REWARD ATHLETIC

ACHIEVEMENT

EFFECTS OF SYSTEMS WHICH REWARD SCHOLASTIC

ACHIEVEMENT

EFFECTS OF AN ASCRIBED STATUS SYSTEM

IX. SCHOLASTIC EFFECTS OF THE SOCIAL SYSTEM

244

Effects upon the image of intellectual activity

Boys' and girls' grades in school

I.Q.'s of best scholars among boys and girls

The different role of girls in different social contexts
Relation between ability and achievement in school
Consequences for studying out of school and college-going
Consequences of different structures: the all-around boy
vs. the specialist

CONSEQUENCES FOR GRADES OF TOP ATHLETES
 AND TOP SCHOLARS

CONSEQUENCES FOR THE STABILITY OF THE SYSTEM:
 MARKETVILLE AS AN EXAMPLE

X. SOURCES OF THE ADOLESCENT VALUE SYSTEMS 279

Population composition of the community
Deterioration of student-teacher relations and its effects
Traditional constraint, modern liberation, and early social maturity
Newcomers, conformity to community values and materialism
Visibility and status of athletes and scholars over the four years of school
Interscholastic athletics and the structure of activities in a school

XI. ADOLESCENCE AND SECONDARY EDUCATION IN MODERN SOCIETY 311

The opportunity for responsible action
Competition
Interscholastic competition, and the channeling of effort
Contest, games, and the absence of judges
Competition among schools for students
Competition for salary by teachers
Special tasks of education in modern society
A concluding note

APPENDIX 331

INDEX 365