
Contents

Figures	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	3

PART 1. NATIONAL SOCIALISM AND WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION: THEORY, POLICY, CONSEQUENCES

1. National Socialism and the Academic Aspirations of German Women: Theoretical Foundations	11
2. The Nazi Campaign Against Female Academic Aspirations, 1933–1935	21
3. The Change in the Nazi Attitude Towards Women University Students, 1935–1939	27
4. The Decline of Women’s Enrollments at the German Universities, 1933–1939: Result of Nazi Antifeminism?	33

PART 2. WOMEN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS IN THE NAZI “STATE OF MEN”

5. Women’s Academic Franchise in Danger: The Reaction of German Women and Women Students	51
--	----

6. The “Working Community of National Socialist Women Students”	55
7. The National Socialist Performance of Women University Students	71
 PART 3. WOMEN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AND THE SECOND WORLD WAR
8. War: Catalyst of an Unprecedented Academic Emancipation of German Women	95
9. German Women University Students, the ANSt, and the Fiasco of the “War Service” Scheme	107
10. The Supply Crisis in the Academic Professions and the Nazi Attitude Towards Women’s Academic Aspirations During the War	119
Conclusion	135
Appendix: Statistical Data	143
Notes	155
Glossary of Frequently Used German Terms	181
Bibliography	183
Index	199