

Contents

Acknowledgements	IX
List of Illustrations	X
Notes on Contributors	XI

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART I

Bodies and Texts: Mapping Melusine in Art and Print

- 1 The Tail of Melusine: Hybridity, Mutability, and the Accessible Other 17
Frederika Bain
- 2 Polycorporality and Heteromorphia: Untangling Melusine's Mixed Bodies 36
Ana Pairet
- 3 Mermaid, Mother, Monster, and More: Portraits of the Fairy Woman in Fifteenth- and Sixteenth-Century Melusine Narratives 52
Caroline Prud'Homme
- 4 The Melusine Figure in Fifteenth- and Sixteenth-Century German Literature and Art: Cultural-Historical Information within the Pictorial Program 74
Albrecht Classen
- 5 The Alchemical Transformation of Melusine 94
Melissa Ridley Elmes

PART II

Mother, Muse: Melusine and Political Identity

- 6 Architecture and Empire in Historia de la linda Melosina 109
Anna Casas Aguilar

- 7 The Lady with the Serpent's Tail: Hybridity and the Dutch Melusine 132
Lydia Zeldenrust
- 8 Matriarchs and Mother Tongues: The Middle English
Romans of Partenay 146
Jennifer Alberghini
- 9 Melusine and Luxembourg: A Double Memory 162
Pit Péporté

PART III

Theoretical Transformations: Readings and Refigurations

- 10 Youth and Rebellion in Jean d'Arras' Roman de Mélusine 183
Stacey L. Hahn
- 11 The Promise of (Un)Happiness in Thüring von Ringoltingen's
Melusine 208
Simone Pfleger
- 12 Half Lady, Half Serpent: Melusine's Monstrous Body and the Discourse of Romance 222
Angela Jane Weisl
- 13 Passing as a "Humayn Woman": Hybridity and Salvation in the Middle English Melusine 240
Chera A. Cole
- 14 Melusine and Purgatorial Punishment: The Changing Nature of Fays 259
Zoë Enstone
- 15 Metamorphoses of Snake Women: Melusine and Madam White 282
Zifeng Zhao

PART IV

Melusines Medieval to Modern

16 Goethe and Die neue Melusine: A Critical Reinterpretation 303
Renata Schellenberg

17 “Listening Down the Hall”: An Epistemological Consideration of the Encounter with Melusine in the Germanic Literary Tradition 324
Deva F. Kemmis

18 Woman, Abject, Animal: Refigurations of Melusine in Frischmuth,
Jelinek, and EXPORT 344
Anna-Lisa Baumeister

19 How the Dragon Ate the Woman: The Fate of Melusine in English 368
Misty Urban

20 Melusines Past, Present, and Future: An Afterword 388
Tania M. Colwell

Selected Bibliography 405

Index 429