

Contents

Preface	ix
PART I: INTRODUCTION
Chapter 1. The Central Problem	3
Chapter 2. The Postwar International Payments System	24
PART II: STRUCTURAL CHANGES IN THE WORLD ECONOMY
Chapter 3. Increased Sensitivity of Foreign Trade	59
Chapter 4. International Movements of Capital, Technology, and Labor	81
Chapter 5. International Financial Markets	112
Chapter 6. National Economic Policy in an Interdependent World Economy	148
PART III: ALTERNATIVE PAYMENTS SYSTEMS
Chapter 7. Economic Policy Formation with Internal Adjustment	177
Chapter 8. Provision for Ample Liquidity	203
Chapter 9. Controlled Restraints on International Transactions	227
Chapter 10. Mixed Solutions for the Atlantic Community	260
Index	281
Council on Foreign Relations	297
Publications	299
	xiii

LIST OF TABLES AND FIGURES

2-1 International Reserves	51
3-1 World Trade by Commodity Class	61
3-2 The Network of World Trade	62
3-3 International Travel	68
3-4 Wage Movements in America, Europe, and Japan	71
3-5 Regional Specialization in Economic Activity in the United States	72
3-6 Specialization in Manufacturing Activity in Industrial Countries	75
4-1 New U.S. Direct Investment Abroad	83
4-2 Private U.S. Capital Movements Other Than Direct Investment	84
4-3 Foreign Direct Investment Flows of Britain and Germany	86
4-4 Direct Investment Flows, 1964	87
4-5 Earnings on U.S. Direct Investments Abroad	102
4-6 U.S. Earnings from Merchandise Exports, Direct Investment and Technology	107
5-1 Money Supply: An International Comparison	124
5-2 Initial Costs of Public Issues, 1962	129
5-3 Market Financing for New Investment, 1962	130
5-4 Major Security Markets, 1962	131
5-5 Transatlantic Financial Exchange, 1962-64	134
5-6 New Foreign Currency Issues on European Bond Market	139
6-1 Percentage of Investment in New Plant and Machinery Allowed to be Written Off for Tax Purposes	166
6-2 Statutory and Effective Corporate Income Tax Rates	166
8-1 Drawings at the International Monetary Fund In Comparison with Reserves of Borrowing Countries	211
9-1 Basic Travel Allowances	241
9-2 Summary of Controls Over Capital Movements Exercised by Major OECD Countries	244
9-3 Calculated Loss in Gross National Product Attributed to Specified Misallocations of Resources	251
10-1 Cooperation and Adjustment	270
Figure 1-1 Liquidity and Adjustment	18
Figure 1-2 Postwar Economic Progress	21
Figure 5-1 U.S. and Eurodollar Interest Rates, 1959-1967	120
Figure 5-2 Arbitrage Incentives Between Dollars and Sterling, 1960-1967	121
Figure 5-3 Short-Term Rates for U.S., U.K., Canada, France, Germany, Belgium, Netherlands, and Switzerland, 1958-1967	141