

Contents

Introduction	1
Dora Osborne

Visual Art

Between Preservation and Destruction: Bernd and Hilla Becher's Archive of "Anonymous Sculpture"	23
Priyanka Basu
Janos Frecot, Photographic Archives, and the Zero Hours of Berlin	45
Simon Ward
Saving the Present: Anselm Kiefer as Self-Archivist	65
Caitriona Leahy
Thomas Demand's Nationalgalerie : Reconstructing a German Archive	85
Dora Osborne

Film

Turkish-German Comedy Goes Archival: Alamanya—Willkommen in Deutschland (2011)	107
Lizzie Stewart
Echoes from the Archive: Retrieving and Re-viewing Cinematic Remnants of the Nazi Past	123
Tobias Ebbrecht-Hartmann
Harun Farocki's Critical Film Archive	141
Annie Ring

Literature

Preserving the Self: Constructs of Memory and Biography in the Works of Jürgen Fuchs	163
Carol Anne Costabile-Heming

- Disruptions of the Archive: Renegotiating German History in Autobiographical Fiction after 1989 179
Regine Criser
- Verbalizing Silence and Sorting Garbage: Archiving Experiences of Displacement in Recent Post-Yugoslav Fictions of Migration by Saša Stanišić and Adriana Altaras 195
Diana Hitzke and Charlton Payne