

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	xxvii
Abbreviations	xxix
Introduction	xxxiii

THE TEXT

Oxford and After: January 1922–October 1927	3
Preface	5
Public School Life	9
The Union	11
The Union	14
The Union	16
The Union	18
A Note on the Assumptions of Cubism	19
Mock Praise	23
Myself When Young	24
Seen in the Dark: The Oxford Super Cinema	26
Seen in the Dark: The Oxford Super Cinema	28
Seen in the Dark: The Oxford Super Cinema	29
The Union	30
The Banbury Oxford Race	33
Seen in the Dark: The Super Cinema	34
Wittenberg and Oxford	35
Isis Idol No. 594: Mr Harold Acton (Christ Church), Editor of The Oxford Broom ; Author of Aquarium , &c.	38
Seen in the Dark	42
The Union	43
At the Super Cinema: Woman to Woman	46
The Union	47
The Super Cinema	50
The Union	51
Isis Idol No. 596: C. R. M. F. Cruttwell, M.A., Dean, Tutor, and Lecturer in Modern History, Hertford College	54
The Union	60
The Union	62
The Union	64
The Union	68
The Union	70

CONTENTS

A Bald Story	72
Contributions to Oxford Union Debates, 1922-1924	74
P · R · B: An Essay on the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood, 1847-1854	78
Girl Fire Heroine: Dash Through Flames to Save Her Dog	105
Preface to the Decorative Designs of Francis Crease	106
London: Becoming Professional, Literary Lion, Converted to Rome: February 1927-October 1930	115
Preface	117
English Letter Writers	129
Dante Gabriel Rossetti: A Centenary Criticism	130
Turning Over New Leaves, A Literary Harvest Thanksgiving: A Biography, Books of Essays, Collected Poems, Dialogues and Monologues, and Two Novels	141
Yes, Give Us a Censor	145
Peter Wilkins	147
Old-Fashioned Drinks	148
Take Your Home into Your Own Hands!	150
Careers for Our Sons. Getting a Job: Revelations Concerning the Street of Ink	152
Too Young at Forty: Youth Calls to the Peter Pans of Middle-Age Who Block the Way	154
Careers for Our Sons. The Complete Journalist: Secrets of Press Success	158
Careers for Our Sons. Literature: The Way to Fame Determined—To Impress	162
Careers for Our Sons. Shopkeeping: Everybody Sells Something Nowadays	163
Beau Brummells on £60 a Year: How Much Does Your Husband Spend on Clothes?	165
Careers for Our Sons. Education! Truths about Teaching Illustrated Books	171
Careers for Our Sons. Crime: How to Be Rich and Dishonest Ronald Firbank	176
Matter-of-Fact Mothers of the New Age: Maternity Neither a Duty Nor a Burden to Them—But the Children Benefit	181
The War and the Younger Generation	184
Approach to Hat	186
Cities of the Future	188
Turning Over New Leaves	191
Let the Marriage Ceremony Mean Something: The First of a Striking Series of Articles on Marriage by Leading Writers of Today	194

CONTENTS

The Literary Lounger	196
Things Have Changed: Mr Evelyn Waugh	200
A Miscellany of Art Books	201
A Searchlight on a 'Classic'—2. Tess —as a 'Modern' Sees It: Evelyn Waugh Analyses the Famous Work of One of England's Greatest Writers	204
Degenerate Oxford?	208
A Young Novelist's Heaven	211
I Prefer London's Night Life	213
Advice to the Rich	215
In Defence of Pleasure Cruising: An Apologia for the New Kind of Vagabondage	218
Youth Has Its Say: What I Think of My Elders	224
Feature Articles for the Daily Mail	227
My Favourite Film Star	227
The Lost Art of Cinema	231
The Books You Read	234
How About Europe?	239
People Who Want to Sue Me	241
Gaudi	244
Alec Waugh	256
The Books You Read	259
When Greek Meets Greek	264
Happy Days in the O.T.C.: By Ex-Acting-Lance-Corporal Evelyn Waugh	266
The Books You Read: A Neglected Masterpiece	269
Such Appalling Manners!	273
The Books You Read	276
Was Oxford Worth While?	280
The Books You Read	283
One Way to Immortality	287
The Books You Read	290
Famous Authors on Marriage Morals	294
This Sun-Bathing Business	295
The Books You Read	298
Address Snobbery	303
The Books You Read	306
A Gambling Holiday	311
For Adult Audiences	313
The Books You Read	315
The Books You Read	320
The Old Familiar Faces: An Inquiry into a Curious Social Phenomenon	325
The Books You Read	327
Parties One Likes—and Some Others	331

CONTENTS

The Books You Read	334
The Books You Read	337
Tell the Truth About Marriage	342
Schoolboys Who Do Not Grow Up	346
The Books You Read	349
The Books You Read	354
The Books You Read	358
The Books You Read	362
Converted To Rome: Why It Has Happened to Me	366
Abyssinia Coronation Reports, Ethiopia and Arabia
Essays, London Journalism: 25 October 1930-28
November 1932	371
Preface	373
The Abyssinian Coronation: Duke of Gloucester at Jibuti	379
The Books You Read	380
The Abyssinian Coronation: Duke of Gloucester's Arrival	383
Dusky Emperor Greets the Duke of Gloucester:
Reception at a Station Throne, Red Umbrella	386
British Air Mission at Addis Ababa	388
British Airmen in Abyssinia: Admiration for R.A.F.
Performance	388
Duke of Gloucester in Abyssinia: Presents to the Emperor	389
Let Us Return to the Nineties But Not to Oscar Wilde	390
Emperor of Ethiopia: The Coronation Ceremony, Scenes
at Addis Ababa, A Statue of Menelek	395
Dancing Priests at Emperor of Abyssinia's Coronation,
Airplane Escort for the 'Lion of Judah'	399
Emperor of Ethiopia: The Coronation Ceremony	401
Coronation Banquet in Abyssinia: 30,000 Guests	404
Raw Beef Feast, Grandfather Clock on Tomb of an Emperor,
Former Ruler of Abyssinia, Coronation Scramble	406
Emperor's Procession in Addis Ababa	407
Ethiopian Emperor at Church, Chiefs in Lion Skins as Escort	408
The Abyssinian Festivities: Emperor's Picnic Party	409
The Books You Read	409
Review at Addis Ababa, Capering Military Bards	413
The Abyssinian Celebrations	415
End of the Abyssinian Celebrations	416
A Journey to Abyssinia	416
A Journey to Abyssinia: Alarums and Excursions	420
A Journey to Abyssinia: Champagne For Breakfast	423

CONTENTS

Ethiopia To-Day: Romance and Reality, Behind the Scenes at Addis Ababa	427
Mr Evelyn Waugh	432
British Policy at Aden: A Conference of Tribal Chiefs	433
Evelyn Waugh Reviews Books of the Week, and Says It Is High Time Someone Called the Bluff About the Flood of Central European Romances	437
Books of the Week Reviewed by Evelyn Waugh: A Tale of London Town, of Its Glamour and Its Tragedy	441
Vile Bodies	444
Why Glorify Youth?	447
Tolerance	451
The Traveller	452
An Indian Comedy	454
The Cold North	456
Travellers' History	458
Travellers	461
Rossetti's Wife	465
Travellers' Tales	467
To an Un-Named Listener—7: To an Unknown Old Man	470
British Guiana and Brazil (with London Journalism):
16 January 1933—7 December 1934	477
Preface	479
Travel—and Escape from Your Friends	489
My Escape from Mayfair: 100 Miles Through Jungle	491
The Shadow Frontier Line	494
Was He Right to Free the Slaves?	496
I Step Off the Map—1: Up the Road to Nowhere	499
I Step Off the Map—2: Six Happy Convicts in a Great Green Prison	505
I Step Off the Map—3: Was It a Miracle which Saved Me? Asks Evelyn Waugh	510
Mr Fleming in Brazil	516
I Step Off the Map—4: Nobody Asked Me—But I Stayed the Night	519
I Step Off the Map—5: The World's Worst Town	522
I Step Off the Map—6: The Slaves of Fear	528
Cocktail Hour	532
Rough Life / Debunking the Bush	536
Farewell 1933	543
The Tourists Manual	548
A Modern Novelist's Apology	554

CONTENTS

Travellers	554
A Contrast in Lives	557
History in Rhymes	560
Some Afterthoughts on Wedding Week: Did We Over-Do It?	562
East and South	565
Acknowledgements	569
Index	571