

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Acknowledgements	ix
Chapter 1.	Introduction	1
Part I	The French Renouveau Catholique	15
Chapter 2.	Fin-de-Siècle Paris and the First Conversions	17
Chapter 3.	Claudel and the Constellation of the Nouvelle Revue Française	31
Chapter 4.	Gide and the Struggle Around the Nouvelle Revue Française	53
Chapter 5.	The Maritain Constellation	69
Chapter 6.	Maritain Among the Avant-Garde	91
Chapter 7.	French Catholicism Faced With the Condemnation of Action Française	121

Part II	The English Catholic Revival	137
Chapter 8.	Newman and the Oxford Movement	139
Chapter 9.	“Liquid Protestantism” and the Conversions of Robert Hugh Benson and Ronald Knox	163
Chapter 10.	The Chesterton Constellation	175
Chapter 11.	Graham Greene, Evelyn Waugh, and the Holiness of the Anti-Hero	191
Part III	The Catholic Revival in Spain	211
Chapter 12.	Catholicism, Liberalism, and the Revolutionary Rhetoric of the 19 th Century	213
Chapter 13.	The Agonizing Christianity of Unamuno and the Lively Catholicism of Joan Maragall	225
Chapter 14.	Antonio Marichalar, José Bergamín, and the Refreshing Catholicism of Cruz y Raya	243
Chapter 15.	Ramiro de Maeztu: Witness to the Political and Spiritual Crisis of Modernity	269
Chapter 16.	The Fascist Temptations of Rafael Sánchez Mazas and Ernesto Giménez Caballero	287
Chapter 17.	Conclusion	309
	Index	327