

Contents

List of Figures	xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction	1
Happiness and the Politics of Words	6
The Political Anthropology of Happiness and Rights	10
Literature	19
1 The Unfinished Declaration	22
Debating the Declaration	25
Nature and Society	29
Rights and Duties	32
Enmity and Passive Citizenship	38
Literature	49
2 What Was Literature?	53
The Author-Politician and the Code of History	55
Louis-Sébastien Mercier and the Reawakening of Patriotic Virtue	59
Choderlos de Laclos's Reinterpretation of Dulce et Utile	66
Marie-Joseph Chénier and the Author-Legislator	72
Literature	89
3 Louis-Sébastien Mercier and the Dream of a Happy Future	93
Temporality in Mercier's Utopian Thought	96
The Form of Government in L'an 2440	102
Taxation and the Duty of Patriotism	108
Literature	125

x	Contents
4	The Search for Order in Choderlos de Laclos's Liaisons dangereuses	129
	The Politics of Social Forms 131
	The Rhythm of Social Forms 136
	The Hierarchies of Social Forms 144
	Literature 160
5	The Regeneration of the State in Marie-Joseph Chénier's Fénelon ou les religieuses de Cambrai	164
	Convent Life and Paternal Inflexibility 167
	The Problem of Humanness 173
	Political Agency: From Unhappiness to Happiness 178
	The Tableau Vivant: The Politics of the Happy Ending 185
	Literature 197
	Conclusion	201
	Literature 206
	Index	209