

CONTENTS

List of Images	vii
List of Plates	ix
Contributor Notes	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
Style, Fashion and Media in South Asian Youth Cultures	1
Lipi Begum, Rohit K. Dasgupta and Reina Lewis
1. Street Style vs. Style on the Street?: Two Interpretations of Indian Street Fashion	30
Arti Sandhu
2. Style-ish Girls and Local Boys: Young Women and Fashion in Chennai	49
Sneha Krishnan
3. Rituparno Ghosh, Sartorial Codes and the Queer Bengali Youth	65
Rohit K. Dasgupta and Kaustav Bakshi
4. In/Visible Space: Reflections on the Realm of Dimensional Affect, Space and the Queer Racialised Self	86
Raisa Kabir in conversation with Lipi Begum and Rohit K. Dasgupta
5. Faces of Subversion: Queer Looks of India	96
Sunil Gupta and Charan Singh
6. Designing for 'Zippies' and the Madness of Bhootsavaar: On Commercially Inflected Artistic Nationalism and Branded 'Subcultures'	102
Tereza Kuldova

7. Trouser Wearing Women: Changing Landscape of Fashion among Free Trade Zone Factory Workers and Contemporary Political Tensions in Sri Lanka Sandya Hewamanne	124
8. Changing Fashions of Bhutanese Youth: Impacts on Cultural and Individual Identity Paul Strickland	146
9. Matching Clothes and Matching Couples: The Role of Dress in Arranged Marriages in Kathmandu Sarah Shepherd-Manandhar	165
10. 'Of Course It's Beautiful, but I can't Wear It!': Constructions of Hindu Style among Young Hindustani Women in Amsterdam Priya Swamy	183
11. Bras are not for Burning: The Bra and Young Urban Women in Delhi and Bombay Lipi Begum	202
Index	223