

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	xi
Part I. Question and Text	1
Chapter 1. Introduction	3
Chapter 2. A History of Research	7
Introduction	7
The Origins of Give Ear	7
The Debate: Beginnings and Complexities	7
Linguistics	9
Historical Allusions	9
Form	10
Redaction	11
Similarities to Other Texts	12
The Relationship of Give Ear to Other Texts	13
A Variety of Similar Texts	13
Give Ear Influenced the Book of Isaiah	14
The Book of Isaiah Influenced Give Ear	15
Mutual Influence	15
Summary	16
Chapter 3. Preliminary Issues	21

Introduction	21
Delimitation	21
Relationship to Framework	21
Integrity	23
Textual Criticism	23
Summary	49
Part 2. What and When? Intertextual Connections	55
Chapter 4. Theories and Methods of Intertextuality	57
Introduction	57
Intertextuality and Influence	57
Synchronic Intertextuality	57
Influence Studies	58
Synthesis	59
Methodology	60
Method	60
Methodological Considerations	61
Summary	63
Chapter 5. Similes and Metaphors	67
Introduction	67
Theoretical Perspectives	67
What Is Metaphor?	67
What Is Simile?	69
The Functions of Metaphors and Similes	69
How Are Metaphors and Similes Identified?	70
Metaphors and Similes in This Book	70
Metaphors and Similes Compared and Contrasted	71
Simile 1: SPEECH is like PRECIPITATION (Deut 32:2)	72
Simile 2: Yahweh GUARDS HIS PEOPLE like THE APPLE OF HIS EYE (Deut 32:10)	73
Simile 3: YAHWEH is like a VULTURE (Deut 32:11)	74
Metaphor 1: YAHWEH (and the GODS) is a ROCK (Deut 32:4.15.18.30.31.37)	76
Metaphor 2: YAHWEH AND HIS PEOPLE are PARENT AND CHILD (Deut 32:5–6.10.11.13.18–20)	77

	Metaphor 3: Yahweh has HANDED OVER his people by SELLING it (Deut 32:30)	86
	Metaphor 4: GOD'S PEOPLE are VINES OF SODOM AND GOMORRAH (Deut 32:32)	87
	Metaphor 5: SERPENTINE VENOM (v. 33)	90
	Conclusion	91
Chapter 6.	Lexemes and Phrases	105
	Introduction	105
	Lexemes and Phrases	105
	Conclusion	130
Chapter 7.	Archaisms, Forms, Themes and Biblical Parallels	135
	Introduction	135
	Limitations	135
	Positive or Negative Results?	135
	The Difficulty of Literary Structures	136
	Archaisms	136
	Forms	139
	Forms of Give Ear	139
	Forms of the Book of Isaiah	141
	Observation on Two Formulas	143
	Themes	144
	Theoretical Considerations	144
	Divine and Mythical Beings	145
	Yahweh and People	147
	Food and Drink	152
	Remembrance and Forgetting, Understanding and Foolishness	153
	Non-Themes	154
	Themes: Summary	155
	Biblical Parallels	155
	Theoretical Considerations	155
	Historical Traditions and Deuteronomy	156
	Hosea and Micah	157
	Earlier Parts of Isaiah (Isa 2–23; 28–33)	158
	Jeremiah and Ezekiel	159
	Psalms	160
	Lamentations	161
	Wisdom Traditions	161

	Biblical Parallels: Summary	162
	Conclusion	162
Chapter 8.	Diachronic Explanations	173
	Introduction	173
	Synchronic Results	173
	Diachronic Explanations	174
	The Book of Isaiah: The Date and Place of Composition	174
	Could the Similarities Be Accidental?	176
	Could Give Ear Be Older?	177
	Could Give Ear Be Younger?	178
	Could Give Ear Be Contemporaneous?	180
	Conclusion	181
Part 3. Why and by Whom? Memory, Identity and Scribal Production		187
Chapter 9.	Theories of Social Memory and Identity Formation	189
	Introduction	189
	Social Memory and Identity Formation	190
	Theories of Social Memory: Early Development	190
	Theories of Social Memory: Studies on the Hebrew Bible	191
	Social Identity Theories: Beginnings and Developments	193
	Social Identity Theories: Studies on the Hebrew Bible	194
	Yehud: Identity through Memory	197
	Persia: An Imperial Backcloth	197
	Neighbors: Close Identities?	198
	Inner-Yehudite Groups	200
	Text, Memory and Identity: Some Recent Studies	202
	Persian Sub-Periods?	205
	Summary: Discussions and Application	207
Chapter 10.	Memory and Identity in Deuteronomy and the Function of Give Ear	219
	Introduction	219
	Deuteronomy	220
	The Origins of Deuteronomy	220

The Memory of Moses	224
Memory and Identity in Deuteronomy	226
Memory and Identity in Give Ear	230
Give Ear without Deuteronomy	230
Give Ear within Deuteronomy	232
Conclusion	234
Chapter 11. Isaianic Memory and Identity and the Work of Scribes	241
Introduction	241
A Non-Deuteronomistic Composition	242
Non-Deuteronomistic Poems in the Deuteronomistic History	242
Give Ear: An Isaianic Poem?	242
Isaianic Texts in the Deuteronomistic History?	243
Give Ear: Isaianic Memories and Identities?	244
Memory and Identity in the Book of Isaiah	244
The Book of Isaiah and Deuteronomy: Bordering Memories and Identities	248
Give Ear: Isaianic Memories and Identities?	249
Give Ear and Textual Production in Yehud	252
The Work of Scribes	252
Give Ear as a Scribal Product	256
Give Ear: Imitation and Authority	257
Conclusion	258
Chapter 12. Conclusion	265
Index of Modern Authors	269