

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Minding the Gaps of Colonial Automobility	1
1.1	The Ongoing Staging and the Original Ordering of Colonial Automobility	6
1.2	Staging and Developing Colonial Automobility	13
1.3	Closing the Mobility Gap	18
	Bibliography	23
2	Paving the Way: Road and Empire Builders	25
2.1	Building New Roads and Following Worn-Out Paths: The Myths of Roman Ways, Republican Modernization, and the Colonial Conquest	27
2.2	Building Colonial Roads with the Natives: The Development (mise en valeur) and Ordering (mise en ordre) of Indochina	42
2.3	Building Colonial Roads with the French: The Staging (mise en scène) and Development (mise en valeur) of Indochina	47
	Bibliography	59
3	Unfolding the Road: Automobile Pioneers	63
3.1	Where the Rubber Meets the Road: Technical Hesitations Did Motoring Have a Future in Indochina?	64
	The Social Uses of the Automobile: The Tour d'Inspection	66

	Indochina: A Testing-Ground for the Automobile	67
3.2	Technical and Symbolic Transportation: From Saigon to Angkor, the Duke of Montpensier's 1908 Expedition	70
	Driving and Writing to Bridge Territories	70
	Driving and Writing to Bridge Histories	74
	Driving and Writing to Bridge Ecologies	78
	Epilogue	79
3.3	Physical and Moral Transport: Pioneering Passengers	80
	Bicycles and Automobiles: Native and European Means of Transport	80
	The Automobile: A Vehicle for Government, Journalism, and Business	83
	Riding and Writing to Become an Automobile Passenger	87
	Bibliography	97
4	Sharing the Road: Road Users	99
4.1	Automobile Guidebooks: Mirrors and Vehicles of Greater Tourism	100
4.2	What Makes a Good Driver in Indochina?	105
4.3	Automobile Associations in Indochina: Generating and Recording Good Driving and Good Conduct	111
	Bibliography	135
5	Writing the Road: Journalistic and Literary Passages and Passengers	139
5.1	The Automobile: A Vehicle for Investigative Journalism	140
5.2	The Automobile in Vietnamese Colonial Literature: A Literary Vehicle for "Invented Stories That You Will Believe"	150
5.3	The Automobile in Marguerite Duras's The Sea Wall: A Literary Vehicle for Colonial Desire and Disappointment	159
	Bibliography	180
6	Overtaking the Road: Careless Pedestrians	183
6.1	The Construction of Careless Pedestrians: Dressage and the Ants	185
6.2	The Meaning of Carelessness: Dressage and Files Indiennes	189

6.3	The End of Carelessness and Dressage: Incorporating Pedestrians into Road Safety	193
	Bibliography	209
7	Conclusion: Driving Metaphors and Myths	211
	Bibliography	224
	Index	227