

Contents

Preface.....	7
Introduction.....	9
Part I. The Achievements of Polish Praxeological School in Management Sciences	11
Professor Bogusław Nierenberg, PhD The Jagiellonian University Professor Witold Kieżun, PhD – the illustrious Polish praxeologist	13
Professor Alojzy Czech, PhD Jan Zieleniewski (1901–1973) – Cracow period, early works	25
Part II. Reflective Management Dilemmas	35
Professor Łukasz Sułkowski, PhD Metaparadigmatic perspective in the theory of organizations and management sciences.....	37
Professor Barbara Kożuch, PhD & Mateusz Lewandowski, PhD Contemporary organizational humanism – overview.....	53
Part III. Contemporary Management Dilemmas.....	69
Colonel Marek Bodziany, PhD & Paweł Kocoń, PhD Military science and management science – methodological connection in the context of culture of organization	71
Sławomir Olko, PhD Management of the multilateral ventures in the networks and clusters in creative industries from the perspective of the activity network theory – methodological aspects	83
Anna Kaczorowska, PhD Reflections on the effectiveness of the evaluation phase in public projects.....	97

Paweł Romaniuk

Trends of changes in risk management supported by an internal audit in all bodies of public administration along with their evaluation..... 117

Katarzyna Szara, PhD

Creative capital and capabilities of its measurement within an organization..... 127

Anna Pawłowska, PhD

Lifelong learning motivation at the age of 45+.
Some sources of limitations 139

Joanna Radomska, PhD

Risk associated with employee participation in the process of strategy implementation versus company size 151

Marta R. Jabłońska, PhD

Consumer needs and implementation of new technologies in the information society illustrated with the example of electric vehicle market..... 161

Monika Stachowiak-Kudła, PhD

Evaluation as an instrument of higher education quality assurance 177

Marzena Papiernik-Wojdera, PhD

Patterns of growth rates and real sales growth in Polish industrial companies in 2006–2012..... 189