

CONTENTS

Introduction by George H. Brown	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii

I BEOWULFIAN STUDIES

1	Beowulf and Epic Tragedy	3
2	Geatish History: Poetic Art and Epic Quality in Beowulf	19
3	Beowulf 207 <sup>b</sup> – 228: Narrative and Descriptive Art	27
4	'Gifstol' and Goldhoard in Beowulf	33
5	The Authenticating Voice in Beowulf	43
6	The Extremities of the Beowulfian Body Politic	55
7	A Touch of the Monstrous in the Hero or Beowulf Re-Marvellized	67
8	Beowulf and the Judgement of the Righteous	75

II THE OLD ENGLISH ELEGIES

9	The Old English Elegies	93
10	The Formulaic Expression of the Theme of 'Exile' in Anglo-Saxon Poetry	125
11	The Wanderer : A Reconsideration of Theme and Structure	133
12	The Wife's Lament Reconsidered	149
13	Attitudes and Values in The Seafarer	155
14	Mīn, Sylf , and 'Dramatic Voices in The Wanderer and The Seafarer '	161
15	Sylf , Seasons, Structure and Genre in The Seafarer	171
16	Wulf and Eadwacer : All Passion Pent	185

III THE THEME OF EXILE

17	The Theme of Spiritual Exile in Christ I	197
18	The Petitions of the Advent Lyrics and the Question of Unity	205
19	Of Locks and Keys – Line 19 <sup>a</sup> of the Old English Christ	215
20	Advent Lyric II Again	219
21	Old English Riddle 39 Clear and Visible	223
	Index	229