

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Marc Maufort
Contemporary Anglophone Drama as Crucible of Cultures	13
Timberlake Wertenbaker
Dancing with History	17
Drew Hayden Taylor
Canoeing the Rivers of Canadian Aboriginal Theatre: The Portages and the Pitfalls	25
Drew Milne
The Anxiety of Print: Recent Fashions in British Drama.....	31
Jozef De Vos
Ravenhill's Wilde Game	47
Amelia Howe Kritzer
Political Currents in Caryl Churchill's Plays at the Turn of the Millennium	57
Donna Soto-Morettini
"Disturbing the Spirits of the Past": The Uncertainty Principle in Michael Frayn's Copenhagen	69
Maya E. Roth
Im/Migrations, Border-Crossings and "Willful Internationalism" in Timberlake Wertenbaker's The Break of Day	79
Alain Piette
The Flexing of Muscles and Tongues: Thug Rituals and Rhetoric in David Mamet's American Buffalo	91
Barbara Ozieblo
The Complexities of Intertextuality: Arthur Miller's Broken Glass and Maria Irene Fornes' Fefu and Her Friends	101
Harry J. Elam, Jr.
The Postmulticultural: A Tale of Mothers and Sons	113

- Eriko Hara*
 An Untold History: The Challenges of
 Self-Representation in Asian American Women's Theater 129
- Robert H. Vorlicky*
 "Imagine All the People": Hip Hop, Post-multiculturalism, and Solo Performance in the United States 141
- Thierry Dubost*
 Irish Disconnections with the Former British Empire:
 Thomas Kilroy's Adaptation of The Seagull..... 151
- Jerry Wasserman*
 Where Is Here Now?: Living the Border
 in the New Canadian Drama 163
- Anne Nothof*
 Humanist Heresies in Modern Canadian Drama..... 175
- Ric Knowles*
 "Look. Look again."
 Daniel David Moses' Decolonizing Optics..... 187
- Robert Appleford*
 "That Almost Present Dream of Tomorrow":
 Daniel David Moses' Kyotopolis as Native Canadian Science Fiction/History Play 199
- Robert Nunn*
 Drew Hayden Taylor's alterNatives: Dishing the Dirt..... 209
- Alan Filewod*
 Theatrical Capitalism, Imagined Theatres
 and the Reclaimed Authenticities of the Spectacular 219
- Valérie Bada*
 Derek Walcott's The Odyssey: A Post-Colonial "Odd Assay" of the Epic Genre as a Regenerative Source of
 "Latent Cross-Culturalities" 231
- Erol Acar & Martina Stange*
 Portrayals of Masculinity/ies in Wole Soyinka's The Lion and the Jewel..... 243

Geoffrey V. Davis

- “The Critical and the Dissident, the Irreverent and the Playful”:
Drama in the New South Africa 255

Marcia Blumberg

- Mapping Counter Truths and Reconciliations:
Staging Testimony in Contemporary South Africa 271

Marc Maufort

- Jane Harrison’s Stolen and the International
Postcolonial Context 285

Tom Burvill

- Multicultural Arts, Ethnicised Identities? 295

Christopher Balme

- Pacific Overtures and Asian Encounters:
New Zealand Theatre and the Bi-Cultural Paradigm 307

Helen Gilbert

- Embodied Knowledges: Technologies of Representation
in a Postcolonial Classroom 323

- Notes on Contributors 339