

CONTENTS

List of illustrations .....	XIII
Foreword by Malcolm Bradbury .....	XIV

THE BEGINNINGS OF ENGLISH:

Old and Middle English 600–1485

Contexts and conditions .....	3
Personal and religious voices .....	6
Language note: The earliest figurative language .....	10
Long poems .....	11
French influence and English affirmation .....	14
Language and dialect .....	18
Language note: The expanding lexicon: Chaucer and Middle English .....	21
From anonymity to individualism .....	22
Women's voices .....	25
Fantasy .....	27
Travel .....	28
Geoffrey Chaucer .....	29
Langland, Gower and Lydgate .....	35
The Scottish Chaucerians .....	39
Mediaeval drama .....	41
Malory and Skelton .....	44
Language note: Prose and sentence structure .....	47

THE RENAISSANCE: 1485–1660

Contexts and conditions .....	51
Language note: Expanding world: expanding lexicon .....	56

Renaissance poetry .....	57
Language note: Puttenham's Social Poetics .....	60
Drama before Shakespeare .....	61
From the street to a building – the Elizabethan theatre .....	67
Language note: The further expanding lexicon .....	69
Renaissance prose .....	70
Translations of the Bible .....	76
Language note: The language of the Bible .....	77
Shakespeare .....	79
The plays .....	80
The sonnets .....	90
Language note: Shakespeare's language .....	92
The Metaphysical poets .....	94
The Cavalier poets .....	100
Jacobean drama – to the closure of the theatres, 1642 .....	101
Ben Jonson .....	101
Masques .....	103
Other early seventeenth-century dramatists .....	104
Domestic tragedy .....	110
City comedy .....	111
The end of the Renaissance theatre .....	113

RESTORATION TO ROMANTICISM: 1660–1789

Contexts and conditions .....	117
Language note: Changing patterns of 'thou' and 'you' .....	120
Milton .....	121
Restoration drama .....	127
Rochester .....	137
Dryden .....	138
Pope .....	142
Journalism .....	145
Scottish Enlightenment, diarists and Gibbon .....	147
The novel .....	150
Criticism .....	164
Language note: The expanding lexicon – 'standards of English' .....	165
Johnson .....	166
Sterne, Smollett and Scottish voices .....	168
Drama after 1737 .....	176
Poetry after Pope .....	177
Language note: Metrical patterns .....	183

Melancholy, madness and nature .....	184
The Gothic and the sublime .....	188
Language note: Point of view .....	192

THE ROMANTIC PERIOD: 1789–1832

Contexts and conditions .....	197
Language note: William Cobbett, grammar and politics .....	202
Blake, Wordsworth and Coleridge .....	203
Language note: Reading Wordsworth .....	207
Language note: The ‘real’ language of men .....	212
Keats .....	213
Shelley .....	217
Byron .....	221
Rights and voices and poetry .....	225
Clare .....	228
Romantic prose .....	229
The novel in the Romantic period .....	233
Jane Austen .....	235
Language note: Jane Austen’s English .....	238
Scott .....	239
From Gothic to Frankenstein .....	243
The Scottish regional novel .....	245

THE NINETEENTH CENTURY: 1832–1900

Contexts and conditions .....	249
Dickens .....	251
Language note: Reading Dickens .....	256
Victorian thought and Victorian novels .....	258
The Brontës and Eliot .....	267
‘Lady’ novelists .....	271
Late Victorian novels .....	273
Victorian fantasy .....	279
Wilde and Aestheticism .....	283
Hardy and James .....	286
Language note: Dialect and character in Hardy .....	289
Victorian poetry .....	293
The Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood and after .....	306
Language note: The developing uses of dialects in literature .....	310

Victorian drama .....	312
Language note: Reading the language of theatre and drama .....	315

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY: 1900–45

Contexts and conditions .....	319
Modern poetry to 1945 .....	322
Language note: Reading Hardy .....	323
Later Hardy .....	325
Language note: The fragmenting lexicon .....	327
Georgian and Imagist poetry .....	329
First World War poetry .....	331
Irish writing .....	334
W.B. Yeats .....	335
T.S. Eliot .....	337
Language note: Modernist poetic syntax .....	342
Popular poets .....	344
Thirties poets .....	345
Language note: Reading Auden .....	349
Scottish and Welsh poetry .....	350
Twentieth-century drama to 1945 .....	353
Irish drama .....	355
D.H. Lawrence .....	357
Popular and poetic drama .....	358
Language note: Literature about language .....	360
The novel to 1945 .....	361
Subjectivity: the popular tradition .....	362
The Kailyard School .....	363
Provincial novels .....	364
Social concerns .....	365
Light novels .....	366
Genre fiction .....	367
Modernism and the novel .....	368
Forster .....	369
Language note: Metaphor and metonymy .....	372
Conrad and Ford .....	373
D.H. Lawrence .....	378
Woolf and Joyce .....	385
Language note: Irish English, nationality and literature .....	394
Novels of the First World War .....	395

Aldous Huxley .....	397
Rooms of their own .....	398
Ireland .....	402
Early Greene and Waugh .....	403
Thirties novelists .....	405

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY: 1945 to the present

Contexts and conditions .....	411
Drama since 1945 .....	414
Language note: Drama and everyday language .....	415
Poetry of the Second World War .....	434
Poetry since 1945 .....	436
Martians and gorgons .....	450
The novel since 1945 .....	457
Writing for younger readers – so-called children's literature .....	458
Later Greene .....	459
Post-war Waugh .....	460
Orwell .....	462
Dialogue novels .....	465
Language note: Discourse, titles and dialogism .....	467
The mid-century novel .....	469
Amis, father and son .....	472
Language note: City slang .....	473
Language note: Common speech .....	475
Golding .....	476
Fowles and Frayn .....	478
Novel sequences .....	479
The campus novel .....	480
Falling in love . . . ..	482
. . . and blood .....	486
Muriel Spark and others .....	487
Margaret Drabble .....	489
Lessing, Hill, Dunmore and Weldon .....	489
Iris Murdoch .....	491
Internationalism .....	493
Rotten Englishes .....	494
New modes of modern writing .....	501
Language note: English, Scots and Scotland .....	508
The contemporary Scottish novel .....	509

The contemporary Irish novel .....	515
Endings and beginnings .....	517
Winners of the Booker Prize .....	521
Winners of the Whitbread Prize .....	522
British and Irish winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature .....	524
Timelines .....	525
Acknowledgements .....	543
Select bibliography .....	548
Index .....	559