

Table of contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations and symbols	ix
INTRODUCTION
Negation and negative concord: The view from Creoles Viviane Déprez and Fabiola Henri	1
Part I. French related Creoles
Sentential negation and negative words in Guadeloupean Creole Simon Petitjean and Emmanuel Schang	11
What is negative in Haitian Creole? Negative Concord Items, sentential, constituent and expletive negation Viviane Déprez	33
A lexicalist account of negation and negative concord in Mauritian Fabiola Henri	69
Part II. English related Creoles
Negation in Pichi (Equatorial Guinea): The case for areal convergence Kofi Yakpo	103
Licensing negation and negative concord in Atlantic Creoles: The case of Vincentian Paula Prescod	125
Negation in Singapore English Luwen Cao and Zhiming Bao	153

Part III. Portuguese related Creoles

Negation in Cape Verdean Creole: A parametric account Marlyse Baptista and Emanuel Correia de Pina	173
Elements of denial in Capeverdean: The negator ka and the properties of n -words Fernanda Pratas	191
Negation in Korlai Indo-Portuguese J. Clancy Clements	211
Negation and negative concord in Guinea-Bissau Kriyol (in comparison with Portuguese, substrate-adstrate languages and other Portuguese Creoles) Alain Kihm	225
Part IV. Other lexifier
Negation in Palenquero: Syntax, pragmatics, and change in progress Armin Schwegler	257
Cross-linguistic negation contrasts in co-convergent contact languages Peter Slomanson	289
Conclusions Viviane Déprez and Fabiola Henri	313
Index	325