

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

	Page
Introductory. The Indo-European Family of Languages. Sources of the English Language. On the Study of English Idioms generally	1

CHAPTER II

Contraction of Words. Recognized Contractions. Interrogative Forms. 'Yes' or 'No' in reply to Negative Questions	8
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

CHAPTER III

Particular Words and Peculiar Idiomatic Meanings: Shall and Will ; Should and Would ; May ; Must ; Ought ; Worth ; Do ; Become ; Call ; Clear ; Draw ; Drive , Ride ; Fall ; Fear ; Hope ; Get ; Leave and Left ; Let ; Look ; Mark ; Propose ; Run ; Sink ; Take ; Touch ; Turn ; Used ; Some Neuter Verbs; Brass ; Fellows ; Habit ; Opportunity ; The World ; Dead ; Good ; Hard ; High ; Idle ; Lame ; Poor ; Sorry ; Adjectives used as Nouns; What ; One ; Some Negatives; Possessive Adjectives; It ; There ; Too ; When =and then; Where =and there	13
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER IV

Idiomatic Phrases formed of an Adjective and a Noun. Idiomatic Noun Phrases. Pairs of Adjectives and of Nouns. Generalized Noun Phrases	51
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER V

Idiomatic Commonplace Comparisons	87
-------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER VI

Verbs and Nouns which idiomatically go together. Verbs denoting the Cries of Animals. Transitive Verbs and Nouns they govern. Explanation of some Phrases into which Transitive Verbs enter	91
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER VII

Idiomatic Adjective Phrases, composed of an Adjective or Participle and an appropriate Preposition. Prepositions idiomatically following Adjectives	Page 102
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

CHAPTER VIII

Idiomatic Prepositional Phrases. Prepositions and Nouns they govern. Explanations of some Expressions into which Prepositions enter. Phrase Prepositions. Particular Usages of some Prepositions. Adverbial Phrases	116
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER IX

Verbs followed idiomatically by Prepositions. Prepositional or Phrase Verbs. Phrase Verbs made up of a simple Verb and a Preposition or Adverb	140
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER X

Idiomatic Verbal Phrases having the Verb To Be . Explanations of such Phrases	227
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XI

Groups of Idiomatic Expressions: Phrases about Money Transactions; Letters, the Post Office; Warfare; Clocks and Watches; Expressions of Time; Since, Before, Ago ; about Sight; the Sea Shore; Ships; Fire, Lights, Candles; Health; Death; National Names	242
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XII

Groups of Idioms with certain Verbs: Break, Carry, Cast, Catch, Come, Cut, Do, Fall, Get, Give, Go, Have, Hold, Keep, Lay, Make, Play, Put, Set, Stand, Take, Throw, Turn	257
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XIII

Miscellaneous Idiomatic Expressions	291
---------------------------------------------	-----

APPENDIX—THE ENGLISH BIBLE

1. The Bible Itself	323
2. Bible Names	323
3. Bible Phrases	326

INDEX	329
---------------	-----