

Contents

Introduction
Michael Bowler and Ingo Farin	3
Part 1. Breakthrough to Hermeneutical Philosophy— History, World, and Self
1 The Different Notions of History in Heidegger's Work
Ingo Farin	23
2 Umwelt in Husserl and Heidegger
Thomas Nenon	70
3 Heidegger and the Hermeneutic Understanding of Human Being
Michael Bowler	93
Part 2. The Hermeneutical Project of Being and Time
4 Hermeneutics in Being and Time
Daniel O. Dahlstrom	115
5 Heidegger and Hegel: Exploring the Hidden Hegelianism of Being and Time
Thomas Schwarz Wentzer	142
6 Heidegger, Metaphysics, and the Problem of Self-Knowledge
Peter E. Gordon	173
Part 3. Hermeneutics after the Turn: Thinking, Listening, and the Place of Language
7 The Beckoning of Language: Heidegger's Hermeneutic Transformation of Thinking
Jeff Malpas	203

8	Abyssal Tonalities: Heidegger's Language of Harkening David Kleinberg-Levin	222
9	The Hurdle of Words: Language, Being, and Philosophy in Heidegger Lawrence J. Hatab	262
Part 4. Heidegger, Gadamer, and Hermeneutical Philosophy
10	Heidegger's Hermeneutics, Gadamer's Hermeneutics Robert J. Dostal	285
11	Heidegger and Gadamer on Hermeneutics and the Difficulty of Truth Dennis J. Schmidt	304
	Bibliography	319
	Contributors	335
	Index	339