

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	ix
INTRODUCTION	3
I. POETRY AND PRECEDENT:
THE MODERN MOVEMENT AND FREE VERSE	29
1. The Identification of Meter with Dated Diction and Subject Matter	32
2. Earlier Reformations of Poetic Diction and Subject Matter	45
3. Revolution with a Difference: The Abandonment of Meter	55
2. "THE SUPERIOR ART":
VERSE AND PROSE AND MODERN POETRY	69
1. Prose Seeking Order on the Model of Poetry	72
2. The Shift from Fiction in Meter to Fiction in Prose	81
3. Poetry Seeking Freedom on the Model of Prose	95
3. THE REVERSES OF TIME:
THE ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN VERSE AND POETRY	109
1. The Ancient Sources of the Modern Distinction	112

2. The Renaissance Conflation of Aristotle, Quintilian, Plutarch, and Servius	131
3. The Modern Opposition of Verse and Poetry	149
4. FREE VERSE AND AESTHETICISM	171
1. The Background of Aestheticism	174
2. Autonomous Poetry, Autonomous Poet	188
3. From Organic Form to Free Verse	192
4. The Rise of Music, the Fall of Poetry	203
5. Versification as Musical Form	209
5. SCIENCES OF SENTIMENT: THE CRISIS OF EXPERIMENTAL POETRY	224
1. Progressive Science, Regressive Poetry?	228
2. The New as the True: Novelty, Modern Verse, and Science	241
3. Impersonality and Skepticism: The Poet as Scientist	252
4. Data and Method: Poetry as Fact or Formula	260
5. Superstition and Experiment	271
CONCLUSION	279
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	295
NOTES	297
INDEX	328