

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
General Editors Preface	ix
Introduction: From Revolution to Rebellion	1
PART I: REVOLUTION TO REPUBLIC
1 Hobbes: Absolutism and the State of Nature	13
2 Harrington: Oceana and the State of Nature	27
3 Diggers, Levellers, and Ranters: The Bible and the State of Nature	37
4 Milton and the State of Nature	53
PART II: RESTORATION TO REVOLUTION
5 Locke, Sidney, and the Whig State of Nature	71
6 Neville: The Utopian State of Nature Revisited	87
7 Behn and the Paternal State of Nature	97
8 Dryden: Don Sebastian and the Ideal Ruler	115
PART III: POST-RESTORATION AND THE HANOVERIAN SETTLEMENT
9 Calvinism and the State of Nature: Robinson Crusoe	135
10 Manley, Defoe and the Politics of Self-Interest	151
11 Bolingbroke: Party and the State of Nature	165
12 Henry and Sarah Fielding: Hobbes Restated	181
Conclusion: The Narratives of Sovereignty	199
Bibliography	203
Index	213