Table of Contents

| I. | Introduction | | • | • | • | • | • | • | • | • | 9 < |
|-------|---|------|----|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|-------|
| II. | Metafiction and Conventional Fiction | | • | • | • | • | • | • | • | • | 16 < |
| III. | Contexts of Metafiction | | • | | • | • | | • | • | • | 24 🕓 |
| IV. | The Self-Concious Narrator | | | | | | | | | | 36 < |
| | 1. Parody and Burlesque | | | | | | | | | | 41 - |
| | 2. Realism and Reality | | | | | | | | | | 55 < |
| | 3. Self-Reflexiveness and Self-Reflection . | | | | | | | | | | 80 - |
| | 4. Laying Bare the Conventions | | | | | | | | | | 98 - |
| | 5. Intercalated 'Theories' of Fiction | | | | | | | | | | 121 |
| | 6. The Use of Myth and Familiar Stories . | | | | | | | | | | 139 |
| | 7. Learned Wit | | | | | | | | | | 177 |
| | 8. Sternesque Jokes | | | • | | • | • | • | • | • | 197 |
| V. | Novel-Within-The-Novel | | | • | • | | • | • | • | • | 225 |
| VI. | Minimal Fiction, or The Question of Scal | le . | | • | | • | • | • | • | | 239 |
| VII. | Reader Participation | | | • | | • | | • | • | • | 253 |
| VIII. | Towards Evaluating Contemporary Metafic | | | | | | | | | | 268 < |
| | 1. A Definition of Art | | | | • | • | | | | | 269 |
| | 2. "Oh God comma I abhor self-consciousr | nes | s" | | | | | | • | | 276 |
| | 3. Metafiction and 'The Figures of Life' . | | | | • | • | | | | • | 281 |
| | 4. Metafiction as both Process and Produc | ct. | | • | | | | | | | 286 |
| | 5. The Need to Develop Fiction | | | | | | | | | | 291 |
| IX. | Bibliography | | | | | | | | | • | 295 |
| | Index | | | • | | | | | | | 323 |