

John Milton

Twentieth-Century Perspectives

Volume 3

Prose

Edited with introductions by

J. Martin Evans
Stanford University

Routledge
New York & London

Contents

ix Volume Introduction

General

- 2 The Structure of Milton's Prose
K. G. Hamilton
- 31 The Civic Hero in Milton's Prose
Annabel Patterson

Religious Liberty

- 63 "Decorum" and the Style of Milton's Antiprelatical Tracts
Thomas Kranidas
- 77 Iconoclasm and Self-Definition in Milton's Of Reformation
Ronald W. Cooley
- 91 Reasons that Imply Themselves: Imagery, Argument, and the Reader in Milton's Reason of Church Government
Stanley Fish

Domestic Liberty

- 111 Milton's Divorce Tracts and the Law of Marriage
Purvis E. Boyette
- 131 Coupling Logic and Milton's Doctrine of Divorce
Lana Cable
- 148 The Spur of Self-Concernment: Milton in His Divorce Tracts
Stephen M. Fallon

Political Liberty

- 171 Milton's Areopagitica: Liberty for the Sects
Michael Wilding

- 203 “To the Unknown God”: St. Paul and Athens in Milton’s
Areopagitica
Stephen Burt
- 213 “Casting Down Imaginations”: Milton as Iconoclast
David Loewenstein
- 231 The Style and Structure of Milton’s Readie and Easie Way
Keith W. Stavely

Education

- 251 Milton’s Of Education
Elbert N. S. Thompson
- 269 “To Repair the Ruins of Our First Parents”: Of Education and Fallen Adam”
Ann Baynes Coiro
- 285 Milton’s Accedence Commenc’t Grammar and the “Deconstruction of Grammatical Tyranny”
Wyman H. Herendeen
- 303 The History of Britain and its Restoration Audience
Gary D. Hamilton

Latin Tracts

- 319 The Provenance of the Christian Doctrine
William B. Hunter
- 333 Milton’s Christian Doctrine
Barbara K. Lewalski
- 345 A Second Defence: Milton’s Critique of Cromwell?
Robert T. Fallon
- 363 Acknowledgments