

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Stefan Hulfeld, Jana Dolečki and Senad Halilbašić
Part I Mobilisation of Theatre Institutions
Testimony Borka Pavićević	37
Borka Pavićević
Stages of Denial: State-Funded Theatres in Serbia and the Yugoslav Wars	45
Irena Šentevska
Bosnia and Herzegovina's National Theatres in the Context of Language Politics During the War	63
Senad Halilbašić
Testimony Amela Kreso	83
Amela Kreso
Theatre as Resistance: The Dodona Theatre in Kosovo	87
Jeton Neziraj
	vii

War Discourse on Institutional Stages: Serbian Theatre 1991–1995 Ksenija Radulović	107
Part II Shifting Stages
Theatre on the Front Lines: Ad Hoc Cabaret in Croatia, 1991–1992 Jana Dolečki	125
Within and Beyond Theatre: President Tuđman’s Birthday Celebration at the Croatian National Theatre in Zagreb Lada Čale Feldman	151
Testimony Snježana Banović Snježana Banović	173
Culture of Dissent, Art of Rebellion: The Psychiatric Hospital as a Theatre Stage in the Work of Zorica Jevremović Milena Dragičević Šešić	177
Theatre of Diversity and Avant-Garde in Late Socialist Yugoslavia and Beyond: Paradoxes of the Disintegration and Cultural Subversion Ana Dević	199
Testimony Borut Šeparović Borut Šeparović	221
Part III Subsequent and External Perspectives
The Theatre Exchange Between Slovenia and the Republics of Former Yugoslavia in the 1990s Barbara Orel	227

Fording the Stream of Conscience: Peter Handke's River Journeys	243
Branislav Jakovljević
Testimony Nihad Kreševljaković	271
Nihad Kreševljaković
Strategies for Challenging Official Mythologies in War Trauma Plays: The Croatian Playwright Ivan Vidić	277
Darko Lukić
Postmodern Antigones: Women in Black and the Performance of Involuntary Memory	297
Aleksandra Jovićević
Testimony Dino Mustafić	315
Dino Mustafić
Index	321