

Contents

Preliminary Remarks .....	7
In Place of an Introduction
Dorothy Canfield's „Sex Education“ and the Prerequisites of Comprehension .....	11
19th Century Artists
Richard Wagner and Shakespeare .....	23
Time, Love, and Decay in Swinburne's Poetry .....	50
The Britishness of Gilbert & Sullivan .....	61
Modern Writers
Wystan H. Auden
W.H. Auden's „Roman Wall Blues“: The Complexity of a Simple Poem .....	71
Uses of Imagery in Auden's Poetry .....	79
Antonio's Revenge: „The Tempest“ and Auden's „The Sea and the Mirror“ .....	91
Auden as Reader and Critic of His Own Poems .....	102
Charles Causley
Causley's „Timothy Winters“ .....	115
Muriel Spark
Intertextuality in Two Novels by Muriel Spark .....	123
Muriel Spark's „The Executor“ – Translating Shorthand into Longhand .....	134
Contemporary Writers
Experimental Short Fiction in Britain since 1945 .....	147
	5

The Baffle of Being

Ian McEwan

Goodbye to Genteel Escapism – Reconsidering McEwan’s Short Fiction .....	164
Experimental Aspects of Ian McEwan’s Short Fiction .....	176

Gabriel Josipovici

Gabriel Josipovici’s Short Fiction .....	188
„[A]ll comes alive and starts to dance“: The 29th Chapter of Gabriel Josipovici’s Goldberg: Variations .....	197
Gabriel Josipovici’s Later Short Fiction .....	208

Acknowledgements .....	228
-------------------------------	-----