Contents

1	Introduction		1
	Reference		8
2	Towards Migration Governance		9
	2.1	From Globalisation to Global Governance	10
	2.2	Migration Management	13
		2.2.1 Steering and Controlling Migration	13
		2.2.2 From Control to Multilevel Management	16
		2.2.3 Migration Governance Through International Migration Regimes	22
	References		27
3	Challenges to Transnational Migration		31
	3.1	Transnational Challenges to Security	31
	3.2	Human Security: A People-Centred Approach	33
	3.3	Securitisation of Migration	34
		3.3.1 Migration as a Security Problem	34
		3.3.2 Securitisation of Migration	35
	3.4	Mixed Migration and Refugees	37
	3.5	Irregular Migration and the Human Security Nexus	41
	3.6	Trafficking, Smuggling and Human Rights	43
	References		47

Ferreira, Susana
Human security and migration in Europe's southern borders
digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

4 Borders in the Age of Human Mobility 51
4.1 The Deconstruction and Reconstruction of Borders 51
4.2 Multilevel Border Management 55
4.3 Safeguarding Security Versus Human Rights 59
4.4 Accountability for Human Rights Abuses and Violations 61
References 63

5 Policies and Practices on Migration in the EU 67
5.1 Is Immigration a Security Threat to the EU? 67
5.2 The Political and Legal Framework 71
5.2.1 On the Construction of a Migration Policy 71
5.2.2 The Guiding Principles 73
5.2.3 The Communitarisation of Migration Issues 74
5.2.3.1 Framework for Legal Migration 77
5.2.3.2 Asylum System 78
5.2.3.3 Irregular Migration 80
References 83

6 EU Border Management: Towards an Effective Control? 87
6.1 The Creation of Fortress Europe Through Border Management 87
6.2 Integrated Border Management (IBM) 91
6.3 The Institutionalisation of Border Management: The Case of Frontex 93
6.4 Border Surveillance and Exchange of Information 96
6.4.1 EU's Technologies of Border Control and Border Surveillance 98
6.4.2 Eurosur 99
6.4.3 Challenges and Legal Limitations 101
6.5 Cooperation: Offshoring and Outsourcing at the EU's Borders 102
References 103

7 Managing Migration in the Mediterranean 107
7.1 International and Cooperation Policies in the Mediterranean Area 107
7.2 Critical Moments Require Emergency Actions 113

7.3 The Mediterranean Migration Regime 116
7.4 An Overflowing Problem Without an Operative Answer 122
References 128

8 Narratives on Migration: From Words to Perceptions 131
8.1 Speaking and Writing Security 131
8.2 Official and Non-official Approaches 133
8.3 The Migration Crisis Seen by the Media 136
8.4 European Leaders' Speech Acts 138
8.5 Public Perceptions and Opinions 140
References 142

9 A Southern Mediterranean Migration Model 145
9.1 Irregular Flows as a Threat to Security in the Southern Mediterranean 145
9.1.1 Spain 146
9.1.2 Italy 151
9.2 Is There a Southern Mediterranean Migration Model? 154
9.3 National Actions 157
9.4 Surveillance and Border Control 160
9.5 Cooperation with Third Countries and the Externalisation Process 167
9.5.1 Spain–Morocco Cooperation 169
9.5.2 Italy–Libya Cooperation 171
References 174

10 The Specificities of the Migration Model 179
10.1 Spain: The Trap of Ceuta and Melilla? 179
10.2 Italy: From the Lampedusa Crisis to the Hotspot Approach 185
10.3 The Paradoxes of Border Management: Between Security and Human Rights 187
References 191

11 Conclusions 193
11.1 Approaching Migration Management in Southern Europe: A Proposal 193
11.2 Final Conclusions 197
11.3 The Way Forward 202
References 203

Annex 205