

Contents

About IFLA — IX

Joanne Plante and Katy Manck

Messages from the Sponsoring Organisations — XI

Barbara A. Schultz-Jones and Dianne Oberg

Preface — 1

Part I: Guidelines and Standards for School Library Education and Training

Part I addresses the use of international and national guidelines for school library education as frameworks for designing school library education and training.

Barbara A. Schultz-Jones

1 International Guidelines for School Library Education and Training — 7

Elizabeth Burns, Marcia A. Mardis, Mary Keeling and Kate Lechtenberg

2 The New U.S. National School Library Standards: Integrated Learning and Growth for Innovative School Librarian Preparation — 21

Lesley S. J. Farmer

3 Developing and Using Standards to Improve School Library Education — 31

Part 2: Educating the School Library Professional

Part II addresses approaches taken for initial preparation of school librarians, offered in formal educational settings, as well as designed to develop dually qualified professionals holding both teaching and librarianship qualifications.

Jennifer Branch-Mueller and Joanne Rodger

4 From Teacher to Teacher-Librarian: Building Knowledge, Skills and Attitudes for School Leadership — 45

Pascale Peurot, Cécile Chabassier, Anaïs Denis, Valérie Glass and Magali Bon

- 5 The Initial Training of Teacher Librarians in France: Towards the Construction of a Faceted Professional Identity — 57

Audrey P. Church, Karla B. Collins, Carl A. Harvey II and Jenifer R. Spisak

- 6 Preparing School Library Professionals Using a Hybrid Instructional Model — 69

Part 3: Changing Pathways in School Library Education and Training

Part III addresses alternate approaches to providing initial preparation for school librarians emphasising programmes offered by professional associations or government ministries and programmes in transition due to changing external forces or internal understandings.

Rei Iwasaki, Mutsumi Ohira and Junko Nishio

- 7 Pathways for School Library Education and Training in Japan — 81

Boemo N. Jorosi and Margaret Baffour-Awuah

- 8 Marching Forward, Marching in Circles: Education for Teacher-Librarians in Botswana: 1962–Present — 93

Jing Zhang, Jingqi Cheng, Han Xie, Weinan Zheng and Zhiwen Kuang

- 9 Reforms in Education for School Librarians in China — 105

Part 4: Continuing Education and Professional Development

Part IV considers programmes offered to in-service school librarians by professional associations, government ministries, school library networks and collaborative ventures.

Kristina Čunović and Alka Stropnik

- 10 The Continuing Professional Development of School Librarians in Croatia — 123

Mary K. Biagini and Rebecca J. Morris

- 11 Growing Leaders: Statewide Leadership Development Academies for School Librarians — 137

Isabel Mendinhos and António Nogueira

- 12 Building and Sustaining a Network of School Libraries in Portugal: The Role of Professional Development — 150

Karen W. Gavigan

- 13 Regional Workshops – Collaborative Professional Development for In-Service Librarians in South Carolina, USA — 162

Barbara A. Schultz-Jones and Dianne Oberg

- Afterword — 170

- Contributors — 171

- Index — 176