

Contents

Introduction Even Ruud .....	7
Music and Health. Opening Speech by Lars Roar Langslet, Minister of Cultural and Scientific Affairs .....	11
From Silence to Speech Unni Johns .....	15
A World of Sound and Music. Music Therapy and Musical Speech Therapy with Hearing-Impaired and Multiple-Handicapped Children Claus Bang .....	19
Music Therapy in Social Education and Psychiatry Isabelle Frohne .....	37
The Brain Behind the Therapeutic Potential of Music Hans M. Borchgrevink .....	63
Body Awareness, Contact and Communication. A Programme Employing Music for Individuals with Serious Perceptual Handicaps Christopher Knill and Marianne Knill .....	97
Musik, Zeit und Gesundheit Albert Mayr .....	107
Response Categories in Clinical Improvisation Tom Næss .....	119
L'oreille a l'ecoute de la musique Alfred A. Tomatis et Jaques Vilain .....	125

Research in Great Britain into the Effects of Music Therapy with Particular Reference to the Child with a Handicap Leslie Bunt .....	149
The Importance of Music and Aesthetic Activities for the General Development of the Child Bertil Sundin .....	161
Music and Health in the Postmodern Society Hans Siggaard Jensen .....	177
Music as Communication – a Perspective from Semiotics and Communication Theory Even Ruud .....	187
Contributors .....	195