

Contents

Preface

Closing the record, by Curt C. Silberman.....	11
---	----

Introduction

by Herbert A. Strauss.....	13
----------------------------	----

I. JEWISH ROOTS IN GERMAN HISTORY

1.1 The beginning of Jewish settlement.....	19
1.2 Jews and Judaeophobia in early modern history.....	24
1.3 The pattern of emancipation: Prussia 1815 – 1848.....	42
1.4 Liberalism and Conservatism in ideology and legislation before 1848..	66
1.5 Jewish reactions to the rise of antisemitism before the Third Reich...	79

II. JEWISH RESPONSES TO NAZI PERSECUTION

2.1 Jewish attitudes in the Jewish press.....	95
2.2 Persecution and resettlement.....	142
2.3 Immigration – worldwide.....	186

III. THE CITY ON THE HILL: NEW DEAL AMERICA

3.1 The historic image of the immigrant.....	247
3.2 The suspicion of radicalism.....	266
3.3 The pattern of acculturation.....	288
3.4 Social and communal integration.....	317

IV. THE INTELLECTUAL MIGRATION

4.1 The movement of people in a time of crisis.....	337
4.2 The intellectual migration.....	347
4.3 The intellectual émigrés.....	366

V. THE IMMIGRANT LOOKS BACK

5.1 The German image of America as a problem of tradition and prejudice.....	387
--	-----

General Index	401
Geographical Index	411