

CONTENTS

1 Introduction	1
Amandine Desille and Thomas Lacroix
Part 1 Diversity in the City: A New Paradigm for Integration in a Knowledge-Based Economy	15
2 Migration Governance in Three European Cities: New Local Paradigms?	17
Myrte S. Hoekstra, Josef Kohlbacher, and Daniel Rauhut
3 Immigrant Rights as an Exercise in Urban Branding: The Case of Philadelphia (2008–2015)	39
Hilary Sanders
4 Multilevel Governance and Migration: Conflicts Among Levels of Governance in the South Tyrol Case	57
Andrea Carlà and Roberta Medda-Windischer

Part 2	The Transnational Governance of Development	77
5	Local Governance, Civil Society and Migrants' Support to Local Development: Perspectives from Morocco Lorena Gazzotti	79
6	Decentralisation and Territorialisation of Migratory Resources in Mali: Towards Which Local and Transnational Governance? Hawa Coulibaly and Stéphanie Lima	97
7	Migrant Organizations and Local Government Cooperation for Development Programmes: A Comparative Analysis of Two Competing Local Authorities in Lyon, France Claire Vincent-Mory	111
Part 3	The Dust Under the Carpet: The Local and Its Discontent	131
8	UK Localism: Unprecedented Opportunity for Local Migrant Integration Policies or 'White Elephant'? Rachael Coker	133
9	'Every Tom, Dick and Harry': Understanding the Changing Role of the South African Immigration Industry Thea De Gruchy	151
10	The Multilevel (Mis)Governance of Roma Migration in the City of Naples Kitti Baracsi	169

11	The Limits of Local Citizenship Policies in Japan	191
	Hideki Tarumoto
12	Conclusion: Archipelagos and Estuaries: Mobility, Local Authorities and the Governance of Multiple Elsewheres	215
	Loren B Landau
	Index	233