

Contents

Illustration credits	ix
Preface and acknowledgments	xiii
Part 1 BACKGROUND	1
1 Introduction	3
2 Architecture for mental and behavioural health: a brief history (1960–2010)	15
3 Special populations: children and adolescents, the aged, and the displaced	49
Part 2 DESIGN	59
4 Reinventing an asylum	61
5 Planning and design considerations for behavioural health architecture	105
Part 3 CASE STUDIES	163
6 Case studies 1–25	165
Notes and References	329
Appendix	357
Urban morphology of CAMH since 1860	357
Postscript	367
Index	370