

Contents

Introduction	9
--------------------	---

Part I The Development of the Concept of Excellence. Toward a Debate on Enhancement

Michał Bizoń

Would Greeks and Romans Endorse Moral Enhancement Through Genetic Modification?	15
--	----

Tomasz Fiedler

Clement of Alexandria: Toward Christian Perfection	49
--	----

Karol Wilczyński

The Idea of Human Enhancement and Arabic Neoplatonism	67
---	----

Jan Kielbasa

The Perfection of Being and the Perfection of Action. Medieval Understanding of the Various Dimensions and Limits of Human Perfection	83
---	----

Wojciech Załuski

The Idea of Human Perfection in Modern Philosophy	101
---	-----

Part II Enhancement Methods: The Promise and Limitations of Enhancing Ourselves

Robert Audi

Moral Philosophy as a Framework for Approaching Human Enhancement	121
--	-----

Thomas Douglas

Enhancing Moral Conformity and Enhancing Moral Worth	145
--	-----

Adriana Warmbier

Moral Enhancement. Enhancing Motivational Processes and Agent-Based Ethics	177
---	-----

Jacek Jaśtał

Human Flourishing and the Coherence of Knowledge. An Aristotelian Perspective	199
--	-----

Wojciech Lewandowski

Intrinsic and Instrumental Values in the Assessment of Human Enhancement	219
---	-----

Beata Płonka

Excellence and Its Biological Limitations	237
---	-----

Robert Poczobut

Transhumanism and Cognitive Science	277
---	-----

Marta Soniewicka

Human Enhancement: The Question of Fairness and Virtues in Sport Activities	295
--	-----

Filip Kobiela

The Brave New Athlete? The Meaning of Perfection in Contemporary Professional Sport	315
--	-----

Notes on Contributors	331
-----------------------------	-----