

Contents

Getting into contact with people	15–43
Greeting and addressing someone	15
Welcoming someone	18
Introducing oneself and others	19
Introducing oneself
Introducing someone
Answering an introduction
Inquiring about health and how to respond	22
Paying a compliment	23
Expressing apologies and how to respond	24
Expressing an apology
Accepting an apology
Showing displeasure in response
Starting a conversation	29
Changing subject in a conversation	30
Interrupting someone and bringing in other people	31
Interrupting someone
Bringing in other people
Ending a conversation and saying goodbye	32
Ending a conversation
Saying goodbye
Making an arrangement	35
Well-wishing and congratulations	37

Expressing good wishes
Expressing good wishes on special occasions and how to respond
Expressing congratulations
Proposing a toast	41
Expressing sympathy and condolence	42
Dealing with statements	44–68
Making sure of understanding	44
Asking if someone speaks a language and how to respond
Saying how well someone speaks a language
Checking that someone has understood you
Saying something again
Checking that you have understood
Asking someone to speak louder or say something again
Asking someone for explanation
Finding out about meaning
Finding out about pronunciation
Finding out about spelling
Asking for and giving clarification	49
Asking for further clarification
Giving further clarification
Asking for and making corrections	51
Asking if something is correct
Saying something is correct
Saying something is not correct
Correcting someone or something
Admitting you are wrong and someone else is right
Defining a term	55
Contrasting ideas	55
Emphasizing a fact	56

Giving examples and illustrations	57
Summing up and generalizing points	59
Summing up points
Generalizing points
Reformulating a statement	60
Reinforcing or modifying a statement	61
Reinforcing a statement
Modifying a statement
Asking for and giving reasons	63
Asking for reasons
Giving reasons
Proving a fact	64
Referring to something or someone	65
Making conditions	65
Making comparisons	66
Expressing likeness and similarity
Expressing differences
Exchanging information and opinion	69–88
Asking for and giving information	69
Asking for factual information and how to respond
Giving personal information and how to respond
Making a statement	72
Constructing an argument	73
Asking for and giving an opinion	74
Asking for someone's opinion
Giving an opinion and how to respond
Expressing agreement or disagreement	77

Expressing agreement
Expressing mild disagreement
Expressing strong disagreement
Asking for and expressing objections	81
Asking if anybody objects and how to respond
Expressing objections
Expressing (im)probability or (im)possibility	83
Expressing probability or possibility
Expressing improbability or impossibility
Expressing certainty, uncertainty or doubt	85
Asking if someone is certain about something and how to respond
Expressing certainty
Expressing uncertainty
Expressing doubt
Describing emotions and reactions	89–114
Expressing likes or dislikes	89
Asking about likes and how to respond
Expressing likes
Expressing dislikes
Expressing preferences	92
Asking about preferences
Expressing preferences
Expressing approval or disapproval	94
Asking if someone approves
Expressing approval
Expressing disapproval
Expressing pleasure, displeasure or anger	96
Expressing pleasure

Saying you are looking forward to something
Expressing displeasure or anger

Expressing surprise	99
Expressing disappointment	100
Expressing regret	101
Expressing concern	103
Expressing hope	104
Expressing relief	105
Expressing thanks and how to respond	106
Expressing thanks
Responding to thanks
Expressing praise	109
Praising people
Praising events, places, plans, etc.
Expressing encouragement	110
Expressing reassurance	111
Expressing blame	112
Expressing complaints	114
Expressing one's attitude	115-132
Expressing willingness or unwillingness	115
Expressing willingness
Expressing unwillingness
Expressing interest or indifference	117
Asking if someone is interested
Expressing interest
Expressing indifference
Expressing intentions	120

Saying you intend to do something
Saying you do not intend to do something
Expressing hesitation	122
Expressing determination	122
Expressing ability or inability	123
Asking if someone is able to do something
Expressing ability
Expressing inability
Expressing obligation	125
Asking if you are obliged to do something
Saying someone is obliged to do something
Saying someone need not do something
Saying what you think you are obliged to do
Expressing permission	127
Asking for permission
Giving permission
Refusing permission
Expressing prohibition	130
Giving warnings	130
Warning of immediate danger
Warning of less immediate danger
Printed warnings
Influencing other people's behaviour	133–154
Making suggestions	133
Asking for a suggestion
Making a suggestion
Accepting a suggestion
Temporizing
Showing indifference
Refusing a suggestion

Giving advice and recommendations	136
Asking for advice or recommendations
Expressing one's inability to give advice or recommendations
Giving advice or recommendations
Accepting advice or recommendations
Considering advice or recommendations
Rejecting advice or recommendations
Persuading someone	140
Making offers	141
Offering something
Giving something to someone
Accepting or declining an offer of something
Offering to do something for someone
Accepting or refusing an offer of help
Expressing invitations	145
Inviting someone
Accepting an invitation
Declining an invitation
Expressing wants and wishes	149
Finding out someone's wishes
Expressing wants and wishes
Making requests	151
Reminding someone	153
Giving orders	153
List of literature consulted	155-156
Alphabetical index of functions (in German)	157-160