
CONTENTS

Introduction 9

Part One: William's Vision of Piers the Ploughman

PROLOGUE: The Plain full of People	25
BOOK I: The Teaching of Holy Church	32
BOOK II: The Marriage of Lady Fee	38
BOOK III: Lady Fee at Westminster	45
BOOK IV: The Downfall of Lady Fee	55
BOOK V: The Confession of the Seven Deadly Sins and the Search for Truth	61
BOOK VI: Piers sets the World to Work	81
BOOK VII: Piers the Ploughman's Pardon	91

Part Two: William's Vision of Do-Well, Do-Better, and Do-Best

BOOK VIII: The Prologue: Thought	101
BOOK IX: Intelligence	105
BOOK X: Study and Learning	112
BOOK XI: Fortune, Good Faith and Nature	127
BOOK XII: Imagination	141
BOOK XIII: Patience and Haukyn the Active Man	151
BOOK XIV: Patience teaches Haukyn the Meaning of Poverty	166
BOOK XV: The Prologue to Do-Better: Anima's Discourse on Charity	178
BOOK XVI: The Tree of Charity and the Dreamer's Meeting with Faith	198

CONTENTS

BOOK XVII: The Dreamer meets with Hope and Charity	207
BOOK XVIII: The Passion and Harrowing of Hell	217
BOOK XIX: The Founding of Holy Church	231
BOOK XX: The Coming of Antichrist	245
APPENDIX A: An 'Autobiographical' Passage from the C Text	257
APPENDIX B: 'The poorest folk are our neighbours'. C Text, Book x, lines 71-97	260
Notes and Commentary	261