

Contents

Preface Alan Pifer	vii
List of Participants	xi
Notes on Contributors	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xvii

PART ONE

The Structure of the Problem

1 Accountability and Independence in the Contract State Bruce L. R. Smith	3
2 The Ditchley Conference: A British View D. C. Hague	70

PART TWO

The Institutions: Industry, University and Others

3 Government Contracting for Academic Research: Accountability in the American Experience David Z. Robinson	103
4 The University-Managed Laboratory J. P. Ruina	118
5 The Government-Oriented Corporation Murray L. Weidenbaum	129
6 Government Contracting in Industry: Some Observations on the Ferranti and Bristol Siddeley Contracts Martin Edmonds	148
7 Project Upward Bound: A Case Study Richard T. Frost	169
8 Problems of Autonomy and Accountability in Government Contracts for Research and Development in Education Francis S. Chase	181

9	Accountability in Britain's Nuclear Energy Programmes	Roger Williams	190
10	Governmental Contracts with Non-Profit Social Welfare Corporations	Bertram M. Beck	213

PART THREE

The Implications for the Government

11	Public Accountability: Trends and Parliamentary Implications	David Howell	233
12	Independence and Accountability in Government Support of Academic Science: A Congressional Perspective	Delphis C. Goldberg	251
13	Financial Accountability to Parliament	Nevil Johnson	283
14	Public Accountability and Audit: A Reconnaissance	E. Leslie Normanton	311
15	Exchange of Letters	Don K. Price, Elmer B. Staats	346
16	Accountability, Independence and Management Science	D. C. Hague	355
	Index		379