

Contents

Preliminary Note	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1 Biographical Sketch	7
Fiction and Reality: 1888–1920	8
The Discovering of the Political Spirit: 1920–1932	11
Political Action: 1932–1937	14
Times of Fear: 1937–1945	17
The Security of the Silence: 1945–1985	17
2 Space and Nomos	21
Nomos of the Earth	22
Earth, Space, Order	23
The Political Relevance of the Nomos of the Earth	28
A Narrative of Land's Appropriation	39
The Geo-interpretation of History	45
3 The Legal Science	51
Law and Power	54
Concrete Order Thinking	60
Phenomenology of Decision	66
Justice	71
4 The Legal Order	73
Original Constitution	73
Positive Constitution	75
Identity and Representation	80
Exception	88

5	The Concept of the Political	95
	The Political	96
	The Friend-Enemy Criterion	102
	Phenomenology of the Enemy	107
	War	110
6	The Political Order	119
	Legitimate Sovereignty	119
	Political Unity	121
	Political Pluriverse: The Grossraum Theory	124
	Excursus : Statism and Antistatism in Schmitt's Positions and Concepts	131
7	Precedents of the Political Theology	143
	Theology of History	146
	The Loss of Potestas Spiritualis	152
	Determining the Concept of Sovereignty	153
	Hobbes's Influence	154
	Counterrevolutionary Influence	155
8	Political Theology	157
	Political Theology as a Field of Knowledge	157
	Secularization	158
	Political Theology as Structural Analogy	162
	Political Theology in Praxis	165
	The Schmitt-Peterson Discussion on Political Theology	166
	Carl Schmitt's Political Theologies	174
	Epilogue	179
	Notes	183
	Bibliography	255
	Works by Carl Schmitt	255
	Other Works	263
	Index	271
	About the Author	279