

Summary of Contents

PREFACE	IX
FOREWORD BY THE AUTHOR	XI
ABBREVIATIONS	XLV
DEFINITIONS IN THE UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES	XLVII
GLOSSARY OF LATIN TERMS	XLVIII
BIBLIOGRAPHY	L
RELEVANT SOURCES OF SOFT LAW, MATERIALS	LVIII
RELEVANT WEBSITES	LXI
WORKING GROUPS	LXII
UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS 2016	LXIX
TABLE OF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ARTICLES OF THE 1994, 2004, 2010 and 2016 EDITIONS OF THE UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES	XCII
Introduction to the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts ("PICC")	1
Preamble (Purpose of the Principles)	13
Chapter 1 — General Provisions	21
Chapter 2 — Formation and Authority of Agents	39
Section 1: Formation	39
Section 2: Authority of Agents	66
Chapter 3 — Validity	79
Section 1: General Provisions	79
Section 2: Grounds for Avoidance	82
Section 3: Illegality	104

Chapter 4	— Interpretation	109
Chapter 5	— Content, Third Party Rights and Conditions	121
Section 1:	Content	121
Section 2:	Third Party Rights	136
Section 3:	Conditions	142
Chapter 6	— Performance	149
Section 1:	Performance in General	149
Section 2:	Hardship	176
Chapter 7	— Non-performance	183
Section 1:	Non-performance in General	185
Section 2:	Right to Performance	206
Section 3:	Termination	217
Section 4:	Damages	236
Chapter 8	— Set-off	265
Chapter 9	— Assignment of Rights, Transfer of Obligations, Assignment of Contracts	283
Section 1:	Assignment of Rights	284
Section 2:	Transfer of Obligations	312
Section 3:	Assignment of Contracts	323
Chapter 10	— Limitation Periods	335
Chapter 11	— Plurality of Obligors and of Obligees	361
Section 1:	Plurality of Obligors	363
Section 2:	Plurality of Obligees	393
INDEX		409

Table of Contents

PREFACE	IX
FOREWORD BY THE AUTHOR	XI
ABBREVIATIONS	XLV
DEFINITIONS IN THE UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES	XLVII
GLOSSARY OF LATIN TERMS	XLVIII
BIBLIOGRAPHY	L
RELEVANT SOURCES OF SOFT LAW, MATERIALS	LVIII
RELEVANT WEBSITES	LXI
WORKING GROUPS	LXII
UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS 2016	LXIX
TABLE OF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ARTICLES OF THE 1994, 2004, 2010 and 2016 EDITIONS OF THE UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES	XCII
Introduction to the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts ("PICC")	1
Preamble (Purpose of the Principles)	13
Chapter 1 — General Provisions	21
Article 1.1 (Freedom of contract)	21
A. The First of a Series of Fundamental Principles	21
B. Freedom of Contract	21
C. Limits	21
Article 1.2 (No form required)	22
A. Principle of Informality	22
B. Limits	22
Article 1.3 (Binding character of contract)	22
A. Pacta sunt servanda	23
B. Limits	23
	XV

Article 1.4	(Mandatory rules)	23
A.	Priority of Private International Law with Respect to Mandatory Law	23
B.	Applicability of Different Kinds of Mandatory Law Depending on the Dispute Resolution Forum	24
1.	Restriction of the Scope of Mandatory Laws in Case of Combination of the UNIDROIT Principles with an Arbitration Clause	24
2.	More Mandatory Law in Case of Combination of the UNIDROIT Principles with a Choice of Court Clause	26
C.	Effects	26
Article 1.5	(Exclusion or modification by the parties)	27
A.	Party Autonomy Emphasized	27
B.	Limits of Mandatory Principles	27
Article 1.6	(Interpretation and supplementation of the Principles)	28
A.	A Modern Standard Rule on Interpretation	28
1.	A Global Approach to Interpretation	28
2.	On Interpretation	29
B.	Supplementation of the UNIDROIT Principles with Due Regard to the Underlying General Principles	29
1.	On Supplementation	29
2.	The Underlying General Principles	30
Article 1.7	(Good faith and fair dealing)	30
A.	Good Faith and Fair Dealing as a Mandatory Core of the UNIDROIT Principles pursuant to Arts. 1.5 and 1.6(2)	30
B.	Standard	31
C.	Practical Relevance	31
Article 1.8	(Inconsistent behaviour)	32
A.	Part of the Mandatory Core of UNIDROIT Principles pursuant to Art. 1.5	32
B.	Priority of More Detailed Principles	32
C.	Examples	33
D.	Remedies	33
E.	Options	33
Article 1.9	(Usages and practices)	33
A.	Two Kinds of Usages and a Limit	33
B.	Hierarchy	34
C.	Proof	34
Article 1.10	(Notice)	34
A.	Risk Allocation to the Sender	35
B.	Abusive Prevention of Giving Notice	35
C.	Withdrawal of a Notice	35

Article 1.11	(Definitions)	36
A.	A Few Key Definitions	36
B.	Further Definitions in the UNIDROIT Principles	37
Article 1.12	(Computation of time set by parties)	37
A.	Impact of Holidays etc	37
B.	Relevant Time Zone	37
C.	Deviations and Interpretation	37
Chapter 2 — Formation and Authority of Agents		39
<hr/>
Section 1:	Formation	39
Article 2.1.1	(Manner of formation)	39
A.	Beyond the Traditional Approach to Contract Formation	39
1.	The Classical Offer-and-Acceptance Test	39
2.	Conduct Sufficient to Show Agreement	39
B.	A ‘Relaxed’ Approach towards Contract Negotiation	40
Article 2.1.2	(Definition of offer)	40
A.	Sufficient ‘Definiteness’ plus ‘Intention’	40
B.	Interrelationship of the Two Criteria	40
Article 2.1.3	(Withdrawal of offer)	41
A.	Para. 1 is Declaratory	41
B.	Any Withdrawal Must be Clear	41
Article 2.1.4	(Revocation of offer)	42
A.	A Self-Explanatory Principle	42
Article 2.1.5	(Rejection of offer)	42
A.	Interpretation of Possibly Implicit Rejections	42
B.	Termination by Other Means	42
Article 2.1.6	(Mode of acceptance)	42
A.	Function and Systematic Place of the Principle	43
B.	When Does the Offeree’s Expression of Assent Amount to Acceptance?	43
1.	The Basic Principle in Para. 1 Sentence 1	43
2.	Conduct without Notice (Para. 3)	43
3.	Possible Impact of Silence	44
C.	When Does the Offeree’s Expression of Assent Become Effective to Establish a Binding Contract?	44

Article 2.1.7	(Time of acceptance)	45
A.	Impact of Time	45
B.	'Oral' Offer	45
C.	Risk Allocation	45
Article 2.1.8	(Acceptance within a fixed period of time)	46
A.	Calculation of Relative Time Periods	46
B.	Uncertainty of Time of Dispatch	46
Article 2.1.9	(Late acceptance. Delay in transmission)	46
A.	Principle (Para. 1)	47
B.	Exception (Para. 2)	47
Article 2.1.10	(Withdrawal of acceptance)	47
A.	A Self-Explanatory Addendum to 2.1.6(2)	47
Article 2.1.11	(Modified acceptance)	48
A.	Modifications in the Acceptance Notice Generate a Counter-Offer	48
B.	But Non Material Alterations Generate a Duty on the Offeror to Speak up	48
C.	Special Rule for Standard Terms	49
Article 2.1.12	(Writings in confirmation)	49
A.	Exception: Changes Contained in Written 'Confirmations of the Contract' Might Alter a Contract	49
B.	Burden of Proof and Test	50
C.	An International Compromise	51
Article 2.1.13	(Conclusion of contract dependent on agreement on specific matters or in a particular form)	51
A.	Freedom to Insist on Substantive or Formal Specifics	51
B.	Waiver	51
Article 2.1.14	(Contract with terms deliberately left open)	52
A.	Possible Contract Conclusion Despite a Term Deliberately Left Open	52
B.	Three Requirements for Contract Conclusion	52
C.	Three Contractual Options (Para. 1)	53
D.	Alternative Means (Para. 2)	54
1.	Alternative Means contained in the UNIDROIT Principles	54
2.	Special Circumstances (Long-term Contracts)	54
3.	Contractual Options	54
4.	Arbitration	55
Article 2.1.15	(Negotiations in bad faith)	55
A.	Avoiding a Cultural Clash, Functions of Art. 2.1.15	55
B.	Bad Faith Examples	56
C.	Damage Calculation. Burden of Proof	57

Article 2.1.16	(Duty of confidentiality)	57
A.	Implied or Express Duty of Confidentiality (Sentence 1)	58
B.	Remedies (Sentence 2)	58
Article 2.1.17	(Merger clauses)	58
A.	Another Contribution to Cross Cultural Understanding	59
B.	Limits	59
Article 2.1.18	(Modification in a particular form)	60
A.	'No Oral Modifications' Clauses	60
B.	Limits	60
Article 2.1.19	(Contracting under standard terms)	61
A.	A Straightforward Regime on Standard Terms in Four Articles	61
B.	Definition (Para. 2)	62
C.	Incorporation (Para. 1)	62
Article 2.1.20	(Surprising terms)	63
A.	Safeguard of Basic Fairness	64
B.	Test	64
Article 2.1.21	(Conflict between standard terms and non-standard terms)	64
	Priority of the Individual Term	64
Article 2.1.22	(Battle of forms)	65
A.	A Favor Contractus Approach to Competing Standard Terms	65
B.	Limits	66
C.	Filling the Gaps	66
Section 2:	Authority of Agents	66
Article 2.2.1	(Scope of the Section)	66
A.	Only Agency in the Contract Formation Process	66
B.	Large Concept of Agency	67
Article 2.2.2	(Establishment and scope of the authority of the agent)	67
A.	Authority Granted by the Principal (Para. 1)	67
B.	Incidental Authority (Para. 2)	68
Article 2.2.3	(Agency disclosed)	68
A.	'Actual Disclosed Agency'	68
B.	'Classical' Consequences	69
C.	'Indirect' or 'Commission Agency'	69

Article 2.2.4	(Agency undisclosed)	69
A.	Another Compromise	69
B.	Only a Relation with the ‘Agent’	70
C.	One Narrow Exception	70
Article 2.2.5	(Agent acting without or exceeding its authority)	70
A.	Principle: No Direct Legal Consequence for the Principal	70
B.	Exception by the Principal’s Own Action	71
C.	Distinction of ‘Appearance’ as a Matter of Non-Contractual Law	71
Article 2.2.6	(Liability of agent acting without or exceeding its authority)	72
A.	Strict Liability	72
B.	Defences	72
Article 2.2.7	(Conflict of interests)	73
A.	Coping with a Range of Conflicts	73
B.	Distinction to Excess of Authority Cases	73
C.	Avoidance Excluded	74
Article 2.2.8	(Sub-agency)	74
A.	Sub-Agency When ‘Reasonable’	74
B.	Details and Legal Consequences	75
Article 2.2.9	(Ratification)	75
A.	Ratification With Retroactive Effect	75
B.	Escape Clause for the Third Party	76
Article 2.2.10	(Termination of authority)	76
A.	A Clarification	77
B.	Subsisting Actual Authority	77
Chapter 3	— Validity	79
<hr/>
Section 1:	General Provisions	79
Article 3.1.1	(Matters not covered)	79
A.	A Self-Explanatory Distinction	79
Article 3.1.2	(Validity of mere agreement)	79
A.	Merely Consensual Contracts	80
B.	Limits	80

Article 3.1.3	(Initial impossibility)	80
A.	A Compromise following the CISG	80
Article 3.1.4	(Mandatory character of the provisions)	81
A.	Part of the Mandatory Core of UNIDROIT Principles pursuant to Art. 1.5	81
B.	Limits	82
1.	By Contract	82
2.	By Law	82
Section 2:	Grounds for Avoidance	82
Article 3.2.1	(Definition of mistake)	82
A.	A Broad Concept of Mistake ...	82
B.	... With Numerous Boundaries (Test Scheme)	83
C.	Legal Consequences	83
Article 3.2.2	(Relevant mistake)	84
A.	Two-Prong 'Reasonableness-Test' (Para. 1)	84
B.	Exception for Gross Negligence and Assumed or Allocated Risks (Para. 2)	85
C.	Legal Consequences	86
Article 3.2.3	(Error in expression or transmission)	86
A.	Errors in Expression or Transmission as Mistakes	86
B.	Legal Consequences	86
Article 3.2.4	(Remedies for non-performance)	87
Remedies for Non-Performance Trumps Avoidance		87
Article 3.2.5	(Fraud)	87
A.	Intended Leading into Error and Thereby Gaining and Advantage	87
B.	Legal Consequences	88
Article 3.2.6	(Threat)	88
A.	Two Kinds of Unjustified Threats	89
B.	Legal Consequences	90
Article 3.2.7	(Gross disparity)	90
A.	Avoidance in case of Excessive Advantage	91
B.	Legal Consequences	92
1.	The 'Triple' of Consequences (Avoidance, Restitution and Reliance Damages)	92
2.	Alternative Option of Adaptation	92
C.	Liquidated Damages and Penalty Clauses	92

Article 3.2.8	(Third persons)	92
A.	Third Party from the Sphere of a Contracting Party	93
B.	Avoidance even without ‘Responsibility’ If the Other Party Needs No protection	93
Article 3.2.9	(Confirmation)	94
A.	A Logical Consequence of Freedom of Contract (and of the Good Faith Principle)	94
B.	Confirmation requires	94
Article 3.2.10	(Loss of right to avoid)	94
A.	Function: Part of the Regime for Mistakes	95
B.	Right of the Other Party to Uphold the Contract in an Amended Version	95
C.	Requirements	95
Article 3.2.11	(Notice of avoidance)	96
A.	Avoiding a Cultural Clash	96
B.	Requirement	96
Article 3.2.12	(Time limits)	96
A.	A ‘Reasonable’ Time Limit	97
B.	A Special Rule for Avoidance of Individual Terms	97
Article 3.2.13	(Partial avoidance)	98
Article 3.2.14	(Retroactive effect of avoidance)	98
A.	Retroactivity	98
B.	Limits	99
Article 3.2.15	(Restitution)	99
A.	Principle of Concurrent Restitution in Kind (Para. 1)	99
B.	‘Impossible’ or ‘Inappropriate’ Restitution in Kind (Paras. 2-3)	100
1.	First Step: Determination of ‘Impossible’ or ‘Inappropriate’ Restitution in Kind	100
2.	Second Step: Determination of an Allowance in Money ‘Whenever Reasonable’	100
C.	Compensation for Expenses (Para. 4)	101
D.	Application of General Rules	101
E.	Contractual Options	102
F.	Limits of the Restitution Regime	102
Article 3.2.16	(Damages)	102
A.	Compensation of the ‘Reliance Interest’	103
B.	Supplemental Application of General Rules on Damages	103

Article 3.2.17	(Unilateral declarations)	103
	Validity Rules Apply Mutatis Mutandis to All Communications of Intention	103
Section 3: Illegality		104
Article 3.3.1	(Contracts infringing mandatory rules)	104
	A. The Second Leg to Art. 1.4	104
	B. Priority of Effects Provided For in the Mandatory Rule (Para. 1)	104
	C. The Supplementary Regime of Paras. 2–3	105
Article 3.3.2	(Restitution)	106
	A. Art. 3.3.1(1) trumps Art. 3.3.2	106
	B. A Reasonableness Test for Restitution	106
	C. Application of Art. 3.2.15	107
Chapter 4 — Interpretation		109
Article 4.1	(Intention of the parties)	109
	A. Chapter 4: One of the Most Important Chapters of the UNIDROIT Principles	109
	B. Overcoming National Distinctions	110
	C. Step 1: Determination of a Joint Intention, if Possible	110
	D. Step 2 in case of Default: Interpretation under an Individualised and Contextualised ‘Reasonable Person’ Test	111
Article 4.2	(Interpretation of statements and other conduct)	112
	A. A Rule Which is Often Incorporated Implicitly	112
	B. Again a Two Step Approach to Interpretation	112
Article 4.3	(Relevant circumstances)	113
	A. Two Groups of Criteria	113
	B. ... Which are Non-Exhaustive	113
	C. Long-term Contracts	114
Article 4.4	(Reference to contract or statement as a whole)	115
	A. A Supplement to Art. 4.3: Reference to the (Contractual) Context of the Term to be Interpreted	115
Article 4.5	(All terms to be given effect)	115
	A. Avoiding to Deprive Any Clause of An Effect	116
	B. Standard Terms (Art. 2.1.19(2))	116
Article 4.6	(Contra proferentem rule)	116
	Interpretation Against the Supplier, as a Rule of Last Resort	116

Article 4.7	(Linguistic discrepancies)	117
A.	A Default Rule to a Missing or to an extreme Equal Language Clause	117
Article 4.8	(Supplying an omitted term)	118
A.	At the Edge of ‘Interpretation’	118
B.	Relationship to ‘Interpretation’	120
C.	Relationship to Arts. 5.1.1-5.1.2	120
Chapter 5 — Content, Third Party Rights and Conditions		121
<hr/>
Section 1:	Content	121
Article 5.1.1	(Express and implied obligations)	121
A.	A Cultural Bridge to Common Law	121
B.	The Arbitrator’s Perspective	122
Article 5.1.2	(Implied obligations)	122
A.	List of Criteria	122
Article 5.1.3	(Co-operation between the parties)	123
A.	Consequence of a ‘Common Project’	123
B.	Limits	124
C.	Legal Consequence of a Violation	124
D.	Contractual Option	124
Article 5.1.4	(Duty to achieve a specific result. Duty of best efforts)	125
A.	A Cultural Bridge to the French Law Family	125
B.	Legal Consequences	126
C.	Limitation of Liability (contractual option)	126
Article 5.1.5	(Determination of kind of duty involved)	127
Assistance in the Classification of an Obligation		127
Article 5.1.6	(Determination of quality of performance)	127
A.	A System of Default Rules	127
B.	An Autonomous Standard Characterised by ‘Reasonableness’	128
C.	Limits	128
D.	Options	128
Article 5.1.7	(Price determination)	129
A.	Part of a System of Default Rules	129
B.	General Default Rule (Para. 1)	129
C.	Specific Default Rules (Paras. 3-4)	130
1.	Paragraph 3 (Non Performance)	130

2. Paragraph 4 (Non Existing Factors)	131
D. A Mandatory Boundary to Unreasonable Unilateral Price Determination	131
1. The Rule	131
2. Contractual Options	131
3. Unreasonable Price Determination by a Third Party	132
Article 5.1.8 (Termination of a contract for an indefinite period)	132
A. Contracts for an Indefinite Period of Time	132
B. Function of Art. 5.1.8	133
C. Reasonable Time in Advance	134
D. Legal Consequences	134
E. Contractual Options	134
Article 5.1.9 (Release by agreement)	135
A. A Clarification to Avoid Cultural Misunderstanding	135
B. Action Required; Silence can Constitute Consent	135
C. Distinction	136
Section 2: Third Party Rights	136
Article 5.2.1 (Contracts in favour of third parties)	136
A. Concentration on Contracts in Favour of Third Parties	136
B. Shaping the Content	137
Article 5.2.2 (Third party identifiable)	138
A. Invalidity in case of Impossibility of Identification	138
B. Future Beneficiaries	138
Article 5.2.3 (Exclusion and limitation clauses)	139
A. Function of Arts. 5.2.3-5.2.5	139
B. A 'Shield' to the Beneficiary	139
Article 5.2.4 (Defences)	139
A 'Shield' to the Promisor	139
Article 5.2.5 (Revocation)	140
A. Modification or Revocation	140
B. Limits	141
C. Options	141
Article 5.2.6 (Renunciation)	141
A. Right of Refusal	141

Section 3: Conditions	142
Article 5.3.1 (Types of condition)	142
A. Avoiding Misunderstandings	142
B. Types	142
C. Distinctions	143
Article 5.3.2 (Effect of conditions)	144
A. A System of Default Rules	144
B. Suspensive Condition (lit. a): Special Characteristics	144
C. Resolutive Condition (lit. b): Special Characteristics	144
D. Joint Features	145
Article 5.3.3 (Interference with conditions)	145
A. The Watch-Dog for the Condition	145
B. The Devil lies in the Detail	145
Article 5.3.4 (Duty to preserve rights)	146
The Watch-Dog for the Conditioned Right	146
Article 5.3.5 (Restitution in case of fulfilment of a resolutive condition)	147
A. Details on the Effects of Resolutive Conditions	147
B. Optional: A Rule of Relevance if Parties Chose Retroactivity	147
Chapter 6 — Performance	149
<hr/>
Section 1: Performance in General	149
Article 6.1.1 (Time of performance)	149
A. Notion of and Restrictions on Performance	150
B. A ‘Fixed’ Time or Period of Time	150
C. A Reasonableness-Test as Default Rule	151
Article 6.1.2 (Performance at one time or in instalments)	152
Partial Performance is Principally Non-performance	152
Article 6.1.3 (Partial performance)	152
A. Protection of the Obligee against Imposed Partial Performance of the Obligor	152
B. Limits	153
C. Further Options for the Obligee If Partial Performance Amounts to Non-Performance	154

Article 6.1.4	(Order of performance)	154
A.	Principle of Simultaneous Performance	155
B.	Limits	155
Article 6.1.5	(Earlier performance)	156
A.	Protection of the Obligee against Earlier Performance	156
B.	The Good Faith Exception; Additional Costs	157
C.	Other Remedies	158
Article 6.1.6	(Place of performance)	158
A.	Expectation Management	158
B.	Default Rule Favouring the Obligor ...	159
C.	... Except for Monetary Obligations	159
D.	Change of Place of Business.	160
Article 6.1.7	(Payment by cheque or other instrument)	160
A.	Core Principles on Payment	161
B.	A Choice of the Obligor	161
C.	Protection of the Obligee in Case of ‘Pull-Orders’	162
Article 6.1.8	(Payment by funds transfer)	162
A.	A Regime for Push-Orders	162
B.	Options of the Obligor as Controlled by the Obligee	163
C.	Moment of Discharge of the Obligor	163
Article 6.1.9	(Currency of payment)	164
A.	Two Articles on Currency Issues	164
B.	Importance of the Place of Payment	165
C.	Some Protection of the Obligee Against Currency Fluctuation	165
Article 6.1.10	(Currency not expressed)	166
A.	Currency of Place of Payment as a Default Rule	166
B.	Limits	166
Article 6.1.11	(Costs of performance)	167
	Each Party Bears its Own Costs as a Default Rule	167
Article 6.1.12	(Imputation of payments)	167
A.	A Balanced International Compromise	168
B.	A Three-Layered Order of Decision	168
1.	Layer 1: Decision of the Obligor (Para. 1)	168
2.	Layer 2: Decision of the Obligee (Para. 2)	169
3.	Layer 3: Default system of Para. 3	169
C.	Limits	170

Article 6.1.13	(Imputation of non-monetary obligations)	170
	Extension to Non-Monetary Obligations	170
Article 6.1.14	(Application for public permission)	171
	A. A Default System to Cope with Public Permission	171
	B. Determination of the ‘Who’	171
Article 6.1.15	(Procedure in applying for permission)	172
	A. Regulating the ‘How’	172
	B. Information of the Other Party	173
Article 6.1.16	(Permission neither granted nor refused)	173
	A. Right of Termination in Case of a ‘Stuck Process’	174
	B. Exception: Only Part of the Contract is Affected.	174
Article 6.1.17	(Permission refused)	175
	A. Legal Consequences of a Refusal	175
	1. A Refusal Affecting the Validity of the Contract	175
	3. Usually No Damages	176
	B. Permission with Extremely Burdensome Conditions	176
Section 2:	Hardship	176
Article 6.2.1	(Contract to be observed)	176
	A. Inspired by International Contract Practice	176
	B. A Reminder to Pacta Sunt Servanda as a ‘Mission Statement’	178
Article 6.2.2	(Definition of hardship)	178
	A. A Fundamental Alteration for the Equilibrium of the Contract	178
	B. Plus Four Factors Relating to the Sphere of the Disadvantaged Party	179
	1. Knowledge After Contract Conclusion (lit. a)	179
	2. Anticipation Reasonably Impossible (lit. b)	179
	3. Beyond Control (lit. c)	179
	4. No Risk Allocation to the Disadvantaged Party (lit. d)	180
Article 6.2.3	(Effects of hardship)	180
	A. Renegotiation	180
	B. Continued Performance of the Contract	181
	C. Application to the Court	181

Introduction	183
A. Overview	183
B. A Concept Based on ‘Spheres’, not on Fault	183
C. Six kinds of rights and remedies in four sections	183
D. Often a Choice Between Several Options	184
E. Individual Adaptations Possible	184
Section 1: Non-performance in General	185
Article 7.1.1 (Non-performance defined)	185
A. A Unitary Concept ...	185
B. ... Based on ‘Spheres’ as Defined in the Contract, Not on Fault	185
C. Impact on Contract Drafting	186
Article 7.1.2 (Interference by the other party)	186
A. A Shield for the Obligor	186
B. Partial Relevance of the Interference	187
C. Most Relevant for Duties to Achieve a Specific Result	187
Article 7.1.3 (Withholding performance)	188
A. A Shield for Both Parties Based on Timing	188
B. Requirements	188
1. Non-performance of the Other Party of an Obligation with Sufficient Connection to the Duty Underlying the Withheld Performance	188
2. Anticipatory Suspension	189
3. ‘Clean Hands’	190
C. Parallel Options to Withholding Performance (subject to meeting the individual requirements of the other provisions)	190
Article 7.1.4 (Cure by non-performing party)	190
A. A Right to Cure for the Obligor	191
B. Parallel Options for the Obligee (subject to meeting the individual requirements of the other provisions)	192
Article 7.1.5 (Additional period for performance)	193
A. A Proactive Way for the Obligee to Cope with Non-Performance	194
B. A Privileged Way to Termination in Case of Delay (Para. 3)	194
C. Parallel Options for the Obligee (Para. 2)	195

Article 7.1.6	(Exemption clauses)	196
A.	The Importance in Practice	196
B.	A Basic Assumption that Exemption Clauses are Valid	197
C.	A Prohibition to Rely on Grossly Unfair Exemption Clauses is Part of the Mandatory Core of UNIDROIT Principles	197
D.	A Test of Severity	198
E.	Limits and Contractual Options	199
Article 7.1.7	(Force majeure)	200
A.	A Shield for the Obligor	201
B.	Conditions	201
C.	Management of Force Majeure by the Obligor	204
D.	Options for the Obligee.	204
E.	Force Majeure Clauses	205
1.	General Function	205
2.	Long-term Contracts	205
3.	Impact of Practice and Usages	205
Section 2:	Right to Performance	206
Article 7.2.1	(Performance of monetary obligation)	206
A.	Action for an Agreed Sum as ‘Specific Performance’	206
B.	Parallel Options (subject to meeting the individual requirements of the other provisions)	206
Article 7.2.2	(Performance of non-monetary obligation)	206
A.	A Pragmatic Compromise Between Civil and Common Law	207
B.	The Exceptions (for the Benefit of the Obligor)	208
C.	Further Options for the Obligor	211
D.	Parallel Options for the Obligee	212
Article 7.2.3	(Repair and replacement of defective performance)	212
A.	A Reminder	213
B.	Restitution	214
C.	Parallel Options	214
Article 7.2.4	(Judicial penalty)	214
A.	A Contribution to the French Legal Family (para. 1)	214
B.	Tactical Considerations (Para. 2 Sentence 1)	215
C.	Refusal to Obey	216
D.	Parallel Options (Para. 2 Sentence 2)	216
Article 7.2.5	(Change of remedy)	216
Limited Freedom to Change the Mind		216

Section 3: Termination	217
Article 7.3.1 (Right to terminate the contract)	217
A. Termination as a Last Resort (Para. 1)	218
B. Fundamental Non-Performance (Para. 2)	218
1. Factors Focussing on the Contract from the Perspective of the Obligee	219
2. Factors Focussing on the Action of the Obligor	221
3. One Factor Focussing on the Economic Impact to the Obligor	222
C. Nachfrist -Procedure as an Alternative in Case of Delay (Para. 3)	222
D. Parallel Options (depending on the circumstances and subject to meeting the individual requirements on the other provisions)	223
E. Legal Consequences	223
Article 7.3.2 (Notice of termination)	223
A. A Concept of Clarity by Notice (Para. 1)	224
B. Balanced by a ‘Reasonable Time’ – Constraint (Para. 2)	224
Article 7.3.3 (Anticipatory non-performance)	225
A. ‘Clear’ Cases of Anticipatory Non-Performance	225
B. Notice	226
C. Effects	226
D. Alternative Options	226
Article 7.3.4 (Adequate assurance of due performance)	227
A. Avoiding a ‘Dilemma’ for the Obligee	227
B. Three Tools for the Obligee	227
1. Tool 1: Request for Adequate Assurance of Due Performance	227
3. Tool 2: A Withholding Right	228
4. Tool 3 (which may follow the use of tool 1 or 2): An Extra ordinary Right to Termination	229
C. Possible Alternative Options	229
Article 7.3.5 (Effects of termination in general)	229
A. A Compromise Between Different Approaches	229
B. Limitation of the Effect of Termination to the Future	230
C. Subsisting Rights and Contract Provisions	230
1. In Case of a Lawful Contract Termination	230
2. In Case of an Unfounded Contract Termination	231
Article 7.3.6 (Restitution with respect to contracts to be performed at one time)	231
A. Principle of Concurrent Restitution in Kind (Para. 1)	231
B. ‘Impossible’ or ‘Inappropriate’ Restitution in Kind (Para. 2)	232
C. Risk Allocation	233
D. Compensation for Expenses (Para. 4) and Other Options	234
E. General Rules Governing the Obligations under Art. 7.3.6	234
F. Long-term Contracts	235

Article 7.3.7	(Restitution with respect to long-term contracts)	235
A.	Limitation of Restitution Rights	235
B.	Conditions	235
1.	Principle Rule	235
2.	Exception	236
C.	Reference to Art. 7.3.6	236
D.	Other Options	236
Section 4:	Damages	236
Introductory Remarks		236
Article 7.4.1	(Right to damages)	238
A.	Damages for Non-Performance unless Excused	238
B.	Application in Addition to Parallel Options	238
C.	Analogical Application	239
Article 7.4.2	(Full compensation)	239
A.	Principle of Full Compensation	239
B.	Adaptation in Cases of Analogical Application	241
Article 7.4.3	(Certainty of harm)	242
A.	Certainty, Probability or Assessment of the Court	242
1.	Harms Established by a Reasonable Degree of Certainty (Para. 1)	242
2.	Loss of a Chance Depending on Probability of its Occurrence (Para. 2)	243
3.	Assessment at the Discretion of the Court (Para. 3)	243
B.	Contractual Options	244
Article 7.4.4	(Foreseeability of harm)	244
A.	An International Standard Meeting Comparative Legal Benchmarks	244
B.	Specifics of the UNIDROIT Principles' Foreseeability Test	245
C.	Impact on Risk Management at the Contract Drafting Stage	246
Article 7.4.5	(Proof of harm in case of replacement transaction)	246
A.	Function of Art. 7.4.5	246
B.	Four Requirements	247
C.	Legal Consequences	248
Article 7.4.6	(Proof of harm by current price)	248
A.	Function of Art. 7.4.6	249
B.	Three Requirements	249
C.	Legal Consequences	249

Article 7.4.7	(Harm due in part to aggrieved party)	250
A.	Function of the Concept of Contributory Causation	250
B.	Requirements	251
C.	Legal Consequences	251
Article 7.4.8	(Mitigation of harm)	252
A.	Function of Mitigation	252
B.	Two Forms of Application	252
1.	A Partial Shield for the Obligor	252
2.	A Basis for A Claim by the Aggrieved Party	253
Article 7.4.9	(Interest for failure to pay money)	253
A.	Function and Practical Importance	254
B.	Two Requirements and One Clarification	256
C.	Interest Rate	256
D.	Additional Damages	257
E.	Contractual Options	257
Article 7.4.10	(Interest on damages)	257
A.	Scope of Application and Function	257
B.	Application	257
C.	Avoidance of Double Compensation	258
Article 7.4.11	(Manner of monetary redress)	258
A.	Flexibility to the Court	258
B.	Indexation	259
Article 7.4.12	(Currency in which to assess damages)	259
A.	An Option for the Aggrieved Party	259
Article 7.4.13	(Agreed payment for non-performance)	260
A.	Function	260
B.	Freedom to Negotiate an Agreed Payment for Non-Performance	260
C.	Judicial Control of Grossly Excessive Clauses as Part of the Mandatory Core of UNIDROIT Principles	262
D.	Contractual Option	263
Chapter 8	— Set-off	265
Article 8.1	(Conditions of set-off)	265
A.	A Neutral Compromise on Set-Off	265
B.	A Liberal Approach	266
C.	Function of Art. 8.1 within the UNIDROIT Principles-System of Set-Off	266
1.	Relation to Arts. 8.2-8.5	266

2. Special Rules with Priority	266
D. Requirements	267
1. Mutuality	267
3. Entitlement to Performance ((1) lit. a)	268
4. An ‘Ascertained’ Obligation of the Other Party ((1) lit. b)	269
5. Exception to the ‘Ascertainability’ Requirement	270
E. Legal Consequences and Terminology	270
F. Contractual Options and/or Restrictions and Other Restrictions	271
1. Contractual Options and/or Restrictions	271
2. Other Restrictions	272
 Article 8.2 (Foreign currency set-off)	 273
A. Function and Principle	273
B. A Race to become the ‘First Party’	274
1. Currency	274
2. Exchange rate	275
C. Restrictions	275
1. No ‘freely convertible currencies’	275
2. Currency Imposed by Agreement	276
D. Contractual Options	276
 Article 8.3 (Set-off by notice)	 277
A. A Straightforward Instruction to the First Party	277
B. Form	277
C. Limits	277
 Article 8.4 (Content of notice)	 278
A. Specification of the Obligations	278
1. The Basic Rule of Para. 1	278
2. Further Contents of the Notice	278
B. Multiple Obligations	279
1. The Default Rule for Missing Specifications in Case of Multiple Obligations of the Other Party	279
2. Missing Specifications in Case of Multiple Obligations of the First Party	280
3. Multiple Obligations on Both Sides	280
 Article 8.5 (Effect of set-off)	 280
A. Defined Substantive Effect for the Future	281
1. Substantive Effect of Set-Off (Para 1)	281
2. Different Amounts (Para. 2)	281
3. Prospective Effect (Para. 3)	281
B. Practical Consequences	282

Chapter 9 — Assignment of Rights, Transfer of Obligations, Assignment of Contracts	283
<hr/>
Introduction	283
Section 1: Assignment of Rights	284
Article 9.1.1 (Definitions)	284
A. Perspective and Scope	284
B. Beyond ‘Definitions’	284
C. Limits	285
Article 9.1.2 (Exclusions)	286
A. A Reminder of Priority of Certain Laws	286
B. Lit. a	286
C. Lit. b	287
Article 9.1.3 (Assignability of non-monetary rights)	287
A. Purpose	287
B. Requirements for an Effective Assignment of Non-Monetary Obligations	287
C. Effects	288
D. Options	288
Article 9.1.4 (Partial assignment)	289
A. Principle	289
B. Requirements	289
1. Rights to the Payment of a Monetary Sum (Para. 1)	289
2. Rights to Other Performance than the Payment of a Monetary Sum (Para. 2)	289
C. Options	290
Article 9.1.5 (Future rights)	290
A. Principle	290
B. Identification as Requirement	291
C. Effect	291
D. Options	292
Article 9.1.6 (Rights assigned without individual specification)	292
A. Assignment of a Bundle of Rights	293
B. Requirements	293
1. Identifiability at the Relevant Time	293
2. Partial Validity	293
Article 9.1.7 (Agreement between assignor and assignee sufficient)	293
A. Mere Agreement	294
1. Assignment of Rights to Receive Payment of a Sum of Money	294

2. Assignment of Rights to Non-Monetary Performance	294
B. Options	295
Article 9.1.8 (Obligor's additional costs)	295
A. An Innovative Concept	295
B. Requirements	295
C. Options	296
Article 9.1.9 (Non-assignment clauses)	296
A. A Balance Between Conflicting Interests	296
B. The System	297
C. Limited Options	298
Article 9.1.10 (Notice to the obligor)	298
A. Function and Functioning	298
1. Until Receipt of Notice	299
2. After Receipt of Notice	299
B. Notice	300
1. Silent Assignments	300
2. Requirements If Notice is Given	300
3. Revocation of Notice	300
C. No Option	300
Article 9.1.11 (Successive assignments)	301
A. Rare Relevance	301
B. Purpose and Functioning of the Rule	301
C. Open Issues	302
D. Options	302
Article 9.1.12 (Adequate proof of assignment)	303
A. Protection of the Obligor	303
B. Inadequate Proof Sanctioned by Ineffectiveness of the Notice	303
1. Request for Proof	303
2. Risk Allocation	304
3. Consequences of Insufficient Proof and Withholding Right	304
C. Options	304
Article 9.1.13 (Defences and rights of set-off)	305
A. Scope of Application	305
B. 'In the Assignor's Shoes' (Para. 1)	305
1. Principle	305
2. Examples for Available Defences (including References to the UNIDROIT Principles Which Assume the Applicability of the UNIDROIT Principles to the Initial Transaction)	306
3. Rights of the Assignee Confronted with such an Objection	306
C. Set-Off (Para. 2)	307
1. Principle (Until Receipt of a Notice of Assignment)	307

2. Restrictions	307
D. Options	308
Article 9.1.14 (Rights related to the right assigned)	309
A. Scope of Application	309
B. Another Useful Compromise Between Civil and Common Law	309
C. Limits	310
Article 9.1.15 (Undertakings of the assignor)	310
A. Self-explanatory Undertakings	311
B. Effect	311
C. Limits and Options	312
Section 2: Transfer of Obligations	312
Article 9.2.1 (Modes of transfer)	312
A. One Option for Each Contract Partner	312
B. Agreement between the Original Obligor and the New Obligor (lit. a)	313
1. Agreement	313
2. Legal Consequence	313
C. Agreement between the Obligee and the New Obligor (lit. b)	313
D. Limits	314
Article 9.2.2 (Exclusion)	314
A. Principle	314
B. Exception	314
Article 9.2.3 (Requirement of obligee's consent to transfer)	314
A. A Supplement to Art. 9.2.1(a)	314
B. Contents and Communication of the Consent of the Obligee	315
1. Contents	315
2. Communication	315
Article 9.2.4 (Advance consent of obligee)	315
A. A Useful Tool in Practice	315
B. Application of the Rule	316
C. Option	316
Article 9.2.5 (Discharge of original obligor)	316
A. Options for the Affected Third Party	317
B. Options for the Obligee under Paras. 1 and 2	317
C. Default Rule in Para. 3	317
D. Additional Option by the Obligee	318
E. Option for the Original Obligor	318

Article 9.2.6	(Third party performance)	318
A.	Freedom for the Obligor as a Rule	318
B.	Extensive Interpretation	319
C.	Limits	319
Article 9.2.7	(Defences and rights of set-off)	320
A.	Scope of Application	320
B.	No Cut Off of Obligor’s Defences Through the Transfer (Para. 1)	320
C.	Restriction regarding Set-Off (Para. 2)	321
1.	No Transfer of Set-Off Rights	321
2.	Limits	321
Article 9.2.8	(Rights related to the obligation transferred)	321
A.	Scope of Application	322
B.	Rights to Performance	322
C.	Security Rights	322
1.	Securities given by the original obligor	322
2.	Securities given by a third party	323
3.	Securities given by the new obligor	323
D.	Limits	323
Section 3:	Assignment of Contracts	323
Article 9.3.1	(Definitions)	323
A.	A Useful Tool	323
B.	Definitions	324
C.	Overview	324
Article 9.3.2	(Exclusion)	325
Limitation of the Scope of Application		325
Article 9.3.3	(Requirement of consent of the other party)	325
A.	Coping with a Need for Consent	325
B.	Modalities of Consent	326
C.	Options	326
Article 9.3.4	(Advance consent of the other party)	327
A.	A Useful Tool in Practice	327
B.	Advance Consent	327
C.	Effect Upon the Transfer of Contract	328
D.	Option	328

Article 9.3.5	(Discharge of the assignor)	328
A.	Three Options for the Other Party	328
B.	Modalities of Execution	329
C.	Advance Discharge	329
Article 9.3.6	(Defences and rights of set-off)	329
A.	Overview	330
B.	Defences and Rights of Set-Off with Respect to Rights Assigned in the Context of Assignment of Contract	330
1.	Defences	330
2.	Set-Off	330
C.	Defences and Rights of Set-Off with Respect to Obligations Transferred in the Context of Assignment of Contract	331
1.	Defences	331
2.	Set-Off	331
D.	Referral	332
Article 9.3.7	(Rights transferred with the contract)	332
A.	Overview and Distinction to Rights of Performance	332
B.	Rights Related to the Rights Assigned in the Context of Assignment of Contract	332
C.	Rights Related to the Obligations Transferred in the Context of Assignment of Contract	333
1.	Security Rights Regarding a Transferred Obligation Given by the Original Obligor	333
2.	Securities given by a Third Party	333
3.	Securities Given by the New Obligor	334
D.	Referral	334
Chapter 10 — Limitation Periods		335
<hr/>
Article 10.1	(Scope of the Chapter)	335
A.	A Useful Compromise between Different Systems	335
B.	Scope of Applicability (based on the scrutiny by Wintgen)	336
1.	Examples of Applicability	337
2.	Counter-Examples to Which Limitation Periods under Chapter 10 do Not Apply	337
3.	Options	338
Article 10.2	(Limitation periods)	338
A.	General and Underlying Principles Regarding Limitation Periods.	339
1.	A Two-Tier System	339
2.	Starting Point on ‘The Day After’	339
3.	Gregorian Calendar.	339
4.	Official holidays or non-business days	339
B.	Beginning of the Limitation Period.	340
1.	General Limitation Period (3 years)	340

2. Maximum Limitation Period (10 years)	341
C. Options	342
Article 10.3 (Modification of limitation periods by the parties)	342
A. Principle of Party Autonomy as a Starting Point	342
B. Modalities.	342
C. Limits as Part of the Mandatory Core of UNIDROIT Principles	343
1. Limits for the General Limitation Period	343
2. Limits for the Maximum Limitation Period	343
3. Violations	344
D. Options	344
1. Principle: No Deviation	344
2. Exception by Dépeçage	344
3. Arbitration Clauses	345
Article 10.4 (New limitation period by acknowledgement)	346
A. Principle, Timing and Effect	346
B. Form of Acknowledgement	347
Article 10.5 (Suspension by judicial proceedings)	348
A. A Concept of Suspension	348
B. Details	349
1. Reference to the Law of the Court for the Beginning of Suspension	349
2. End of Suspension	349
C. Contractual Options	350
D. Effect of the Judicial Proceedings on Joint and Several Obligors	350
Article 10.6 (Suspension by arbitral proceedings)	350
A. Adaptation of the Concept of Suspension to Arbitration	351
B. Details	351
1. Beginning of Suspension	351
2. End of Suspension	352
C. Effect of the Arbitral Proceedings on Joint and Several Obligors	352
Article 10.7 (Alternative dispute resolution)	352
A. Formal Mediation and Conciliation as Suspending Event	352
B. Legal Consequence: Application of Arts. 10.5 and 10.6	353
1. Commencement of Suspension	353
2. End of Suspension	353
C. Effect of the Alternative Dispute Resolution on Joint and Several Obligors	354
Article 10.8 (Suspension in case of force majeure, death or incapacity)	354
A. Force Majeure as an Excuse for the Oblige	354
B. Details	355
1. Definition of Force Majeure	355
2. Effects of force majeure	355
3. Death and Incapacity	356

Article 10.9	(Effects of expiration of limitation period)	356
A.	The First of Three Articles on the Effects of the Expiration of the Limitation Period	357
B.	Rights for the Obligee and for the Obligor	357
1.	Introduction	357
2.	A Requirement to Actually Assert the Right	357
3.	A Remaining Right to Defend	357
C.	No Effect on Collaterals	358
Article 10.10	(Right of set-off)	358
A.	Supplement to Art. 10.9	358
B.	Supplement to Art. 8.1 et seq.	359
C.	Contractual Options	359
Article 10.11	(Restitution)	359
A.	Time-Barred Claims as a Valid Basis for Performance	359
B.	Restitution Based on Other Grounds	360
Chapter 11	— Plurality of Obligors and of Obligees	361
<hr/>
Introduction		361
A.	Overview	361
B.	Language	361
C.	Scope	362
Section 1:	Plurality of Obligors	363
Article 11.1.1	(Definitions)	363
A.	Two Kinds of Obligations	363
B.	Joint and Several Obligations (lit. a)	363
C.	Separate Obligations (lit. b)	364
D.	Options	365
Article 11.1.2	(Presumption of joint and several obligations)	366
A.	A Default Rule	366
B.	Contractual Interpretation	367
Article 11.1.3	(Obligee's rights against joint and several obligors)	367
A.	A Choice of the Obligee	367
B.	Non-Performance	368
C.	Contractual Option	368

Article 11.1.4	(Availability of defences and rights of set-off)	368
A.	A Clear Distinction Between Common and Personal Defences	368
B.	Common Defences	369
1.	The Principle and Examples	369
2.	Assertion	369
C.	Personal Defences	370
1.	The Principle	370
2.	Legal Impact on Contributory Action	370
D.	Set-Off	371
E.	Communication	372
F.	Contractual Options	372
Article 11.1.5	(Effect of performance or set-off)	372
A.	A Generally Accepted Rule on Discharge by Performance	373
B.	Merger	373
C.	Contractual Option	373
Article 11.1.6	(Effect of release or settlement)	373
A.	Principle of Partial Discharge of Remaining Obligors	374
B.	Impact on Contributory Claim.	375
1.	General Impact	375
2.	Increase of Contributory Shares Subsequent to the Release	375
C.	Contractual Options	375
Article 11.1.7	(Effect of expiration or suspension of limitation period)	376
A.	Partial Reduction of the Effect of an Expiration of a Limitation Period	376
B.	Effect of Proceedings against One Obligor	377
1.	The Effect of Para. 2	377
2.	Limits	377
C.	Contractual Options	378
1.	Regarding the Contract between Obligee and Obligors	378
2.	Regarding the Relationship between Co-Obligors	378
Article 11.1.8	(Effect of judgment)	379
A.	Principle	379
1.	No Binding Effect on Co-Obligors	379
2.	Freedom of the Obligee	380
B.	Exception in case of Personal Defences	380
Article 11.1.9	(Apportionment among joint and several obligors)	381
A.	The Foundation for Contributory Claims and Subrogation	381
B.	A Default Rule	381
Article 11.1.10	(Extent of contributory claim)	382
A.	Contributory Claim of an Obligor	382
B.	Details	383
1.	Qualification of Contributory Claims as Separate	383

2. Extent of the Contributory Claim – Calculation Example	383
3. Cost and Interest	383
4. Contribution in Money	384
5. Prescription	384
C. Contractual Options	384
Article 11.1.11 (Rights of the obligee)	385
A. An Additional Tool for the Obligor	385
1. Conditions	385
2. Legal Consequences	386
B. Priority for the Obligee	387
Article 11.1.12 (Defences in contributory claims)	388
A. A Straightforward Rule	388
B. A Clear Distinction Between Common and Personal Defences	388
1. Common Defences	388
2. Personal Defences in General	389
3. Special Personal Defences	390
4. Set-Off	390
C. Options	391
Article 11.1.13 (Inability to recover)	392
A. A Possible Change of the Apportionment	392
B. Conditions	392
C. Calculation	393
Section 2: Plurality of Obligees	393
Article 11.2.1 (Definitions)	393
A. Three Kinds of Obligation Offered by the UNIDROIT Principles	393
B. Separate Claims (lit. a)	394
1. Principle	394
2. Selected Advantages or Disadvantages	394
3. Contractual Options Within This Kind of Obligation	395
C. Joint and Several Claims (lit. b)	395
1. Principle	395
2. Selected Advantages or Disadvantages	395
3. Contractual Options Within This Kind of Obligation	396
D. Joint Claims (lit. c)	396
1. Principle	396
2. Selected Advantages or Disadvantages	397
3. Contractual Options Within This Kind of Obligation	397
E. Absence of an Explicit Choice	397
F. Options to Agree on Other Concepts	398

Article 11.2.2 (Effects of joint and several claims)	399
A. A Supplement to Art. 11.2.1 lit. b	399
B. Details	400
1. Formal Procedures with One Obligee	400
2. Performance in Circumstances Governed by Chapter 7	400
3. Merger.	400
C. Contractual Options	401
Article 11.2.3 (Availability of defences against joint and several obligees)	401
A. Function and Principle	401
B. Defences and Set-Off under Para. 1	402
1. Defences Which are Common to the Obligor's Relationship with All Obligees	402
2. Defences Which are Personal to the Obligor's Relationship with One Obligee	402
3. Contractual Options	403
4. Set-Off	403
C. Defences and Set-Off under Para. 2	403
1. Performance and Rights of Set-Off	403
2. Effect of Release and Settlement	404
3. Effect of Expiration and Suspension of Limitation Period	404
4. Special Rules on Effect of Judgement	405
Article 11.2.4 (Allocation between joint and several obligees)	406
A. Purpose	406
B. Apportionment	406
C. Transfer of Excess Received from the Obligor	406
1. Obligation to Transfer the Excess	406
2. Set-Off with Expenses	407
3. Contractual Options	407
D. Merger of the Obligor with One Obligee	408
INDEX	409