

List of Tables and Figures.....	VI
List of Abbreviations	VII
1. Introduction: Situation under Control?.....	1
2. Theoretical Framework of State Reconstruction.....	7
2.1. State Theories and Definitions	8
2.1.1. Central Principles of State Theory.....	8
2.1.2. Core Functions of the State	11
2.2. The “Art” of State-Building.....	13
2.2.1. State-Building on the International Agenda.....	13
2.2.2. Contrasting State-Building	18
2.3. Study Focus: Security Sector Reform in State-Building	21
2.4. Stopover: The Knowns and Unknowns of State-Building	24
3. Developing a Methodological Framework for Analysis	27
3.1. A Closer Look at Methodological Implications	27
3.2. Developing a Conceptual Framework for SSR Impact	29
4. Case Study Afghanistan	39
4.1. Conflict Portrait and State-Building Approach.....	39
4.2. The Afghan Police.....	48
4.2.1. The Police Reform Agenda Starting from Scratch	48
4.2.2. The Police under Transition to Full Responsibility	54
4.2.3. Assessing the Reconstruction of the Police.....	58
4.3. The Afghan Military.....	65
4.3.1. The Military Reform Agenda Starting from Scratch	65
4.3.2. The Military under Transition to Full Responsibility ...	71
4.3.3. Assessing the Reconstruction of the Military	76
4.4. Lessons Learned about SSR and State-Building in Afghanistan	87
5. Conclusion: Digging into Chaos.....	95
Literature.....	99