

Contents

Acknowledgments, vii

Introduction, ix

Part One Origins and Erasures: The Emergence of a Boasian Circle

- 1 Transformation Masks: Recollecting the Indigenous Origins of Global Consciousness Isaiiah Lorado Wilner, 3
- 2 Franz Boas in Africana Philosophy Lewis R. Gordon, 42
- 3 Expressive Enlightenment: Subjectivity and Solidarity in Daniel Garrison Brinton, Franz Boas, and Carlos Montezuma Ryan Carr, 61
- 4 “Culture” Crosses the Atlantic: The German Sources of The Mind of Primitive Man Harry Liebersohn, 91

Part Two Worlds of Enlightenment: Boasian Thought as Process and Practice

- 5 Rediscovering the World of Franz Boas: Anthropology, Equality/Diversity, and World Peace James Tully, 111
- 6 Of Two Minds About Minding Language in Culture Michael Silverstein, 147
- 7 Why White People Love Franz Boas; or, The Grammar of Indigenous Dispossession Audra Simpson, 166

Part Three Routes of Race: The Transnational Networks of Ethnicity

- 8 Utter Confusion and Contradiction: Franz Boas and the Problem of Human Complexion Martha Hodes, 185
- 9 The Death of William Jones: Indian, Anthropologist, Murder Victim Kiara M. Vigil, 209
- 10 Woman on the Verge of a Cultural Breakdown: Zora Neale Hurston in Haiti and the Racial Privilege of Boasian Relativism Eve Dunbar, 231
- 11 “A New Indian Intelligentsia”: Archie Phinney and the Search for a Radical Native American Modernity Benjamin Balthaser, 258

Part Four Boasiana: The Global Flow of the Culture Concept

- 12 The River of Salvation Flows Through Africa: Edward Wilmot Blyden, Raphael Armattoe, and the Redemption of the Culture Concept Sean Hanretta, 279
- 13 A Two-Headed Thinker: Rüdiger Bilden, Gilberto Freyre, and the Reinvention of Brazilian Identity Maria Lúcia Pallares-Burke, 316
- 14 Seeing Like an Inca: Julio C. Tello, Indigenous Archaeology, and Pre-Columbian Trepanation in Peru Christopher Heaney, 344

List of Contributors, 377

Index, 379